GERMANS ADMIT LOSS OF STRATEGIC WORKS

Relentless Battering Carries Allies Well Into German Positions and Important Gains Are Made at Many Points.

RUSSIANS DRIVE GERMANS BACK 25 MILES AT ONE POINT IN THE EAST

Germanic Line of Communication Is Seriously Threatened By Latest Rush of French—Russ Fall Back at Osmiana—Greece Votes $30,000,000 Loan and the Enthusiasm Is High—Turks Dejected Over Continued Successes of Allies—French Lose Heavily Near Aras.

By Associated Press. London, September 30.—The great drive of the entente allies on the western front is making important headway in the Champagne region of France.

Paris claims a notable advance, and Berlin concedes that the French have gained ground, announcing that hill No. 191, north of Massignes, has been lost to the French.

It is likewise admitted by German army headquarters that French troops succeeded in penetrating the German lines in two small sections near Souchez, south of Lens, in the Artois region.

French attacks south of Aras were easily repulsed, while a brigade that pushed through the German outer line at one point in the Champagne was broken up, 800 men being captured and others destroyed, Berlin declares.

The Paris War Office announces that a footing in the second German line of defense was secured at several points.

The only resistance of the Germans in the Artois district, where the British and French are pushing their lines toward Lens with the eventual taking of the important city of Lille apparently in view, was an extremely violent bombardment of the new allies' position east of Souchez.

Berlin, via London, September 30.—Loss of another position in France to the allies, as a result of the great battle now in progress, is announced in the official statement from the War Office today.

The Germans lost hill No. 191, which is a position in the Champagne region north of the town of Massignes.

Petrograd, via London, September 30.—Territorial gains of considerable extent by the Russians are indicated by the War Office.

The Germans have been pushed back from the terminal station at Gluboki, for a gain of 25 miles, to a point midway to the Vilna-Dvinsk railway.

Battles of great intensity are being fought on the line from Kozlany on the Dvina river, to Krivo.

Paris, September 30.—Further important gains by the French, in the vigorous continuation of the general offensive movement of the entente allies on the western front, are reported by the French War Office today.

French troops gained a footing in the German second line of defense in the Champagne region, it is announced.

They have taken an important defensive work of the Germans south of Ripont, which is 4 miles north-west of Massignes, back of which lies an important junction on the railway which parallels the German front in this region.

The allied attacks along a front in the west totalling less than 30 miles are regarded in England as only a beginning of the offensive movement.

The Russians are still holding off von Hindenburg's attacks at Dvinsk but are apparently having more difficulty in resisting the energetic movement he is making against them near Osmiana, where Petrograd admits the Russians have been forced to retire somewhat.

Athens, Greece, September 30.—The Greek chamber, in a special session today, ratified the action of government in decreeing a general mobilization of the army, and authorized a loan of $30,000,000.

Bills proclaiming a state of siege in Macedonia, and providing for the families of men called to the colors, were enthusiastically applauded and voted.

Premier Venizelos was greeted enthusiastically when he entered the building.

He said, in an address to the chamber, that mobilization of the Greek forces was indispensable, on account of Bulgaria's military measures.

He stated, however, that Bulgaria had explained to Greece that she had no intention of adopting an aggressive attitude toward Greece or Serbia.

Copenhagen, via London, September 30.—"News of the offensive on the western front is taken very seriously here," says the Berlin correspondent of the Politiken.

"The Tageblatt remarks that nothing would be more foolish than to overlook the terrible seriousness of the recent battles in the west."

U. S. VESSEL BLOWN UP

By Associated Press. Washington, September 30.—The American sailing ship Vincent was blown up September 29, in the White Sea, and is a total loss.

The crew was saved, but her captain and three men were injured and are being treated in a hospital at Archangel.

Consular dispatches to the State Department today reported the disaster.

CHIEF POINTS ARE SETTLED

By Associated Press. New York, September 30.—The committee in charge of the sale of the $500,000,000 Anglo-French bonds has cleared away a number of details. Chief of those which were settled are: That the life of the underwriting syndicate is to be 60 days; the sum subscribed by banks will be left on deposit with the subscribers until needed and then withdrawn proportionately, and the profit of the syndicate members will be one and three quarters per cent.

"JUSTIFY" ACT OF DESTRUCTION

By Associated Press. Berlin, wireless, September 30.—In a pamphlet dealing with the shelling of the Rheims cathedral, the Prussian Ministry of War deduces evidence to prove that the cathedral was used by the French as an observation station, says the Overseas News Agency.

ZEPPELINS ON WING

By Associated Press. London, September 30.—Six Zeppelin dirigible balloons were sighted today over Aerschot, 23 miles north-east of Brussels.

The airships were bound in a westerly direction.

This information was contained in a dispatch from Amsterdam to the Central News Agency.

Due west of Aerschot lies Dover and the English channel.

NOTABLES DIE IN OFFENSIVE

By Associated Press. London, September 30.—The British casualties in the recent offensive action on the western front included Lieutenant General Sir Thompson Capper and Major General G. H. Thesiger, both killed.

1500 HOVER ON BORDER

By Associated Press. Brownsville, Texas, September 30.—A considerable increase in Carranza troops opposite this part of the border was reported today from several reliable sources on the Mexican side.

About 1500 of these troops are said to have taken up stations opposite territory where American patrols are placed.

WILLIS TALK 2000 MILES

By Associated Press. Columbus, September 30.—Over 2000 miles of telephone wires from San Francisco, Governor Willis will converse with friends in the House of Representatives chamber here next Monday evening. Invitations have been sent to 150 officials and friends.

Receivers and transmitters will be installed on every desk in the House of Representatives chamber. A branch line will allow the governor's aged parents, at Delaware, to take part in the conversation.

EXECUTION POSTPONED

Washington, September 30.—At the request of the Swedish minister President Wilson today telegraphed to the governor of Utah, asking a stay of execution for Joseph Hillstrom, a Swedish subject, sentenced to be shot in the Utah state penitentiary at sunrise tomorrow.

Hillstrom was convicted of murder.

SAFE CONDUCT IS DELIVERED

Washington, September 30.—The British ambassador personally delivered to the State Department today a safe conduct under which Dr. Constantin Dumba, the Austrian ambassador, will return to Vienna.

Dr. Dumba expects to sail October 5th.

HUMAN VOICE 4600 MILES BY WIRELESS

By Associated Press.

New Haven, Conn., September 30.—The statement was made by officials of telephone companies here today that at last midnight messages by wireless telephone were sent from the wireless telegraph station at Arlington, Md., to Honolulu, Hawaii, a distance of about 4,600 miles.

It is stated that the tests were a complete success.

BONDS READY IN TEN DAYS

By Associated Press. New York, September 30.—Complete details of marketing the $500,000,000 joint Anglo-French five year bonds probably will be announced late today by J. P. Morgan & Company.

It was thought that the bonds might be offered for sale within ten days.

TOLL ON GULF IS NEAR 35

By Associated Press. Memphis, Tenn., September 30.—Seven or eight white persons and seventeen negroes were drowned and a score more injured at Frenier, Louisiana, in yesterday's storm, according to reports to the office of the general superintendent of the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley Railroad here today.

Galveston, Texas, September 30.—A wireless message received here this morning from New Orleans stated that at 2 o'clock the water in the streets of the city was receding rapidly, and that the stage of the river was also going down.

This message reported the number of dead in New Orleans at five.

Indications were, the message said, that the damage to property had been considerable.

San Antonio, Texas, September 30.—A wireless from New Orleans to the station at Fort Sam Houston at 10:10 o'clock this morning says:

"Reports conditions are not very bad."

A message received at 7:30, relayed from Galveston, said:

"Last heard water nearly drained from streets of New Orleans. Going down rapidly."

Mobile, Ala., September 30.—All communication with New Orleans, by wire, wireless and rail, has been cut off by the tropical storm since two o'clock this morning.

A wireless message received at Galveston today, sent at that hour, indicated that the storm had passed.

The death list is not expected to exceed ten in New Orleans, but the property damage probably will be heavy.

Telephone and telegraph companies began work this morning repairing the damage. Linemen succeeded in restoring the fallen wires to within 23 miles of New Orleans.

STRIKERS RIOT

By Associated Press. Chicago, September 30.—Two hundred or more striking garment workers made a demonstration in front of a cloak shop here today. Bricks were thrown and windows broken. Police responded to a riot call. One arrest was made.

THINKS LOAN IS A BLUNDER

By Associated Press. London, September 30.—Asserting that American bankers naturally prefer a loan with some $10,000,000 profit to the importation of gold, which brings no profit, the Manchester Guardian declares editorially: "There is no reason, however, why the government should indulge in what has every appearance of being a blunder, as costly politically as financially."

DEPUTY IS DISMISSED

By Associated Press. Columbus, September 30.—E. C. Sizer, Democrat, assistant fire marshal at $1,500 a year, was dismissed summarily today by State Fire Marshal Buckley, on specific charges of insubordination and inefficiency.

The specifications in the insubordination charge are, that Sizer failed to make any report during September, turned over to the press official communications of the department and turned in excessive expense accounts.

VETERANS RECOVERING

By Associated Press. Washington, September 30.—Most of the 200 civil war veterans taken to hospitals yesterday when they became exhausted in the G. A. R. parade, had fully recovered today and were ready for participation in the remainder of the annual reunion program.

The veterans had a busy day before them, the program being featured with a reception at the White House by President Wilson to the surviving officers of the civil war.

Elias H. Montfort, of Cincinnati, was one of the four men nominated for commander-in-chief at the G. A. R. business session here today.

INSPECTORS SAVE LIVES BY FINDINGS

By Associated Press. Columbus, September 30.—How the state of Ohio watches over the safety and health of her industrial workers is shown by a report on the inspection of workshops, factories and public buildings between Sept. 1, 1913 and Dec. 31, 1914, made public today by Fred C. Croxton, chief statistician of the industrial commission. The inspections were made and orders issued by the department of workshops and factories under Chief Inspector Thomas P. Kearns, recently resigned.

The report, covering 16 months, shows these facts: 20,935 establishments were inspected; 24,465 inspections were made, resulting in the issuance of 11,220 orders with 31,341 distinct requirements for change in building or working conditions.

A total of 6256 orders, or more than half, were issued to manufacturing establishments, including 1370 making food or kindred products and 1036 making iron, steel and such products; 3253 were issued to hotels and restaurants; 1184 to wholesale and retail stores; 397 to transportation companies and public utilities.

Of the 31,341 requirements for changes, 61 per cent were for protection of life and limb; 22 per cent related to health, sanitation, comfort and moral safeguards; 13 per cent related to the employment of women, children and minors.

SERBIA IS NEXT AIM OF KAISER

Tenton Army of 500,000 Assembled Near Border.

ACTIVITY ON EAST FRONT

General Von Hindenburg's Armies Pressing the Russians Hard at Dvinsk and Threatening Minsk. Turks Defeated by the British in Mesopotamia — Date of Bulgaria's Entry Into the War.

London, Sept. 30.—Dispatches from Athens, received here, report that an Austro-German army 500,000 strong is assembling for an offensive against Serbia.

The Germans continue to strike hard at the Russian forces all along their front. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is delivering heavy strokes against Drinsk, while his colleague on his right is pushing forward to the east of Vileika and Molodechno in an attempt to turn the Russian position, and has now reached a point to the north of Minsk, which another army is advancing upon from the southwest.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen and Prince Leopold of Bavaria apparently are inactive, owing doubtless to the marshes, which are now impassable, but General Von Linsingen is still pressing hard on the Russians in Volhynia.

It is expected that the weather will soon put an end to the operations in the east, as with the continued rains the rivers can not be forded, and the Russians, wherever possible, are getting behind them.

The British have inflicted another serious defeat on the Turks in Mesopotamia. The Tigris army, after suffering heavy losses, is in flight toward Bagdad. Thus, the three armies which the Turks sent to Mesopotamia against the Anglo-Indian invaders have been scattered. In May the Tigris army was driven back from Kurna to north of Amara; the army of Kurna was driven from Ahwaz, and the army of the Euphrates was last heard of as fugitive on the river somewhere north of Nahr.

GEMMIES TO MEET

Columbus, Sept. 30.—The Democratic state and executive central committees and Democratic congressmen will meet at the Neil House at 1 p. m. Monday to plan a referendum campaign against the Sprague congressional gerrymander law and in favor of the Democratic gerrymander of 1914.

"Gets-It" for Corns, SURE as Sunrise!

Any Corn, With "Gets-It" on It, Is an Absolute "Goner!"

Yes, it's the simplest thing in the world to get rid of a corn,—when you use "Gets-It," the world's greatest corn-remover. Really, it's almost a pleasure to have corns just to see them come off with "Gets-It." It just loosens the corn from the true flesh, and then makes it come "clean off." 48 hours ends corns for keeps. It makes the use of tape, corn-squeezing bandages, irritating salves, knives, scissors, and razors really look ridiculous. Get rid of those corns quickly, surely, painlessly,—just easily,—with "Gets-It." For warts and bunions, too. It's the 24th century way.

"Gets-It" Puts Your Feet in Clover.

"Gets-It" is sold by all druggists, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Washington C. H., and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Brown's Drug Store and Frank Christopher.

DESERTED CHILDREN DROWNED

SLEUTHS SEARCHING FOR A BABY FARM

Bodies of Twelve Infants Are Found in River.

New York, Sept. 30.—The finding of the bodies of twelve babies, from a day to a week old, in the East river, on the Williamsburg side, led the police to believe that somewhere in the Williamsburg section there is a baby farm. All the bodies have been found in the last four weeks.

Active search for the place from which the bodies were taken to the river was begun as Joseph Miller, a watchman on the docks, found the bodies of two baby girls not more than a few days old floating in the river. That confirmed Coroner Wagner in his suspicion and he said he was sure that all the bodies came from the same place. There were other things to make a "baby farm" seem the only explanation of the finding of so many bodies in so short a time. They have been of about the same age, been in the water for not more than three or four hours and have been found at about the same time in the evening.

The water front in this section is occupied by factories and men with packages and bundles are constantly passing all during the day. It would be easy for anyone to drop a small bundle off a dock without attracting attention.

INDORSE DRY AMENDMENT

Columbus, Sept. 30.—Plans for securing an executive state headquarters building for the Ohio State Sunday School association will be resumed "after Ohio goes dry this November," Dr. W. G. Clippinger, president of the association, announced at the meeting of the men's institute of methods. The session was in connection with the state adult Bible conference. Resolutions indorsing the dry amendment, woman suffrage and the single standard of morals were adopted by the men. R. A. Doan of Cincinnati was elected president and Dr. D. J. Darling of Columbus general secretary.

POWDER MILL WORKMEN DIE

Haskell, N. J., Sept. 30.—Three workmen at the plant of the E. I. DuPont-De Mours Powder company in this town were killed, one was fatally injured and a fifth was terribly burned when 800 pounds of powder exploded while it was being transferred from a truck to a small drying shed. The dead are Edward Herring of Haskell, James Watson of Paterson and Fred Williams of Riverdale.

BANKERS OF CHICAGO TO PASS LOAN

New York, Sept. 30.—Financiers here say that New York banks and individuals will take at least 60 per cent of the proposed loan to the allies, or in the neighborhood of $300,000,000, perhaps a little more. More than one-third of this amount, it was said, has already been subscribed for by individual investors of great wealth or much ready money. In this number, it was said, could be counted the heads of the industries now engaged in making munitions of war as well as the possessors of great wealth. John D. Rockefeller, it is rumored, will subscribe for a block of the bonds.

Chicago banks are not expected to form a group. German influences, it is said, are so strong in the banks out there, on the boards and among the depositors, that the banks could not safely appear. Queries have been received from a dozen other cities. To every inquiry, it was said, J. P. Morgan & Co., acting upon the part of organizers, sent a telegraphic invitation for the banks to form a group and come in.

MINERS REFUSE

Athens, O., Sept. 30.—Locking valley coal miners, in mass meeting here, decided to stand by their contract and to refuse further wage concessions asked by operators of the district. Many operators thereupon predicted that three-fourths of all mines in the Hocking valley will be closed by the middle of November and will remain closed until a new wage agreement may be made next April.

NEW CORN CURE PRINCIPLE

Dr. Hunt's Wonderful Penetration Method. PRICE ONLY 10c.

It remained for Dr. Hunt of Sidney, Ohio, to solve the corn problem. Folks had tried other remedies with only partial success. So, Dr. Hunt got at the root of the matter by getting at the root of the corn with his wonderful penetration method.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Trim plaster size of corn and apply.

An amazing ingredient, discovered by Dr. Hunt penetrates the corn, eases it immediately, loosens it root and branch so that in two days the corn lifts right out.

No pain, no throbbing toe, no bulky uncomfortable pads to press on the sore spot, no discomfort whatever. Wear your regular shoes. Corn is cured while you walk about. Don't use caustic ingredients that eat off only the top of the corn and stimulate its further growth. Cure your corn the new way, the scientific way by using Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure. Cures by penetration.

Ten cents brings you a box-full. Guaranteed or money back. Sold by all druggists and shoe dealers. Or, send ten cents in stamps to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

The Price of Exchange

There has been quite a good deal of speculation as to just what was meant when the news dispatches told us that the price of foreign exchange was falling.

Most of us could not understand how the English pound sterling could fluctuate in price.

Here is the way the Outlook explains the matter.

Mr. Smith, an American, sells 1000 pounds of sterling worth of cotton to Mr. Brown, an Englishman, in London. The price agreed upon for all such transactions is commonly expressed in English money—pounds, shillings and pence. In ordinary times the financial routine is as follows: Mr. Smith makes a draft on Mr. Brown for 1000 pounds. He could, if he chose, send a messenger over to London and get the 1000 sovereigns, but the expense of such a method of getting his money would be so great as to be prohibitive. Mr. Smith's office is in New York. There is another merchant in New York, Mr. Jones, who owes money in London. He has bought English goods and wants to pay for them. Like Mr. Smith, he does not want to send a messenger to London with his money. He is looking about for some means of paying his bill easily and cheaply. He finds out at a banker's that there is another merchant, Mr. Smith, who has drawn a draft on London for 1000 pounds. He buys it of him through the bank, and mails the draft to London. Mr. Brown, through his English banker, honors the draft. Mr. Jones thus easily pays his debts, and Mr. Smith with equal ease, gets the money for his cotton.

The French and English financiers have been negotiating with our American bankers for the purpose of closing a loan which will prevent the exchange of those nations at a steady figure and put an end to the fluctuations in the price of exchange. The explanation quoted above from the Outlook will enable us to understand the whys and wherefores of a problem which is not familiar, especially in rural districts.

A Western Idea

A western newspaper—one of a great number published in the smaller communities of this country enthusiastically devoted to the service of the particular community its people and its business enterprises—has hit upon quite a novel and effective means of demonstrating to its readers the folly and the injustice of patronizing the big mail order houses and passing by the home business men.

The editor of the paper informs his readers that one of the public roads leading into the town is in a particularly bad condition and that he has sent a letter to each of several of the big mail order houses of the larger cities asking them to make a contribution to be expended in repairs. No doubt, the editor says, the big mail order houses will make haste to comply with the request and forward a substantial sum of money.

The editor, perhaps sarcastically, asserts that certainly, as these big mail order houses pay no taxes in the community and are receiving big sums from the people they will see the justice of the request.

The incident is worthy of consideration by every resident of the rural communities who patronize or even considers seriously of patronizing the out side mail order house.

The plan adopted by the loyal editor of the small western newspaper should be called to the attention of the people all over the nation.

It is an eye opener.

Of course there are a multitude of reasons why the buyer should deal in his home market but this one reason so clearly demonstrated is sufficient to convince anyone possessed of any intention to do right by himself.

Another time wholesome and novel ideas have come out of that great wide awake "west" of ours.

"Going Up."

Prices in the stock markets are still traveling upward, telling a tale of general prosperity in the industrial and commercial activities of the nation.

Not only have the prices of securities reached, as a result of the phenomenal rise of last week, been steadily maintained without any fall of consequence, but in most instances the prices recorded last week have been exceeded in the quotations of the present week.

It is absolutely certain that the advance in price is not due to any stock jobbing manipulations. In the first place the advance is too pronounced and the list of stocks showing an increased price embraces too great a variety of securities. In fact almost every commercial and industrial stock is in on the big boom.

In the second place the advance of last week, remarkably pronounced as it was, could not have been maintained and succeeded by this week's market if there had not been substantial cause existing justifying the increase.

The folks who love to talk hard times have at last been compelled to acknowledge that there is no need for gloom now.

Some few still cling to pessimistic prophecy and are arguing excuses for the revival of business, but they find few sympathizers.

Poetry For Today

WHEN WE GROW OLD.

When we grow old, and when the way
Has wearier grown, maybe,
I wonder will you look that day
As truthfully to me?
When we grow old, sweetheart, and
when Love's tenderest tales are told,
What new ones shall we whisper
then,
Dear love, when we grow old?

Now Time is young—how light, how young,
We scarce can hear his feet,
Save that each footfall leaves some song
To make our dreaming sweet.
But Time steals on, sweetheart, and
when
His steps have heavier grown,
I wonder, shall we hear, then,
The music we have known?

Dear heart, when we grow old, I
ween,
Your hands in mine I'll take,
And all the old, old love has been
We'll tell for new love's sake.
What though each passing year may bring
A halting speech and slow,
As truly as of yore 'twill ring,
"Dear love, I love you so."

Every now and then you meet a poor boob who really believes that if he wanted to turn himself loose among the women he could make Don Juan
look like a piker.

You never saw a man holding down
a big executive position who was so proud of his complexion that he let it
keep him awake at night.

If you own a car a pedestrian is an ivory domed, slow footed boob who hasn't sense enough to get out of his own way. But if you are a pedestrian a car owner is a swelled headed, arrogant idiot who belongs in an insane asylum.

There are some 100,000 words in the English language. But when a man stubs his toe or mashes a finger the only word he can think of is one that

He often expresses his willingness to

after she gets him she often wishes he

Some men get a lot of comfort out of the reflection that there are worse people in the world than they are.

When a man goes into a kaff to get a beer costing 5 cents he will meet six acquaintances who are drinking fifteen cent drinks. So he has to ask them what they will have. And instead of paying a nickel the man pays $1 for his beer. But the man doesn't mind it so much because he thinks he is a sport. But he isn't a sport. He is a coward and a sucker.

SOLDIERS AND CANES.

English Military Men Must Not Go Out
Walking Empty Handed.

It is one of the regulations of the British army that every soldier when walking out must carry in his hand a stick in order to preserve a soldierly appearance and prevent anything like slouching in his gait.
This rule applies to all ranks, and should any one seek to evade it he would find his progress barred by the sentry at the barrack gate or entrance to camp.

Privates generally carry light canes or "swagger sticks," noncommissioned
officers fairly stout sticks, and officers invariably go in for the more expensive kind. It is a question that has often been asked, Who first suggested the idea? But nobody seems to know.

From the earliest times drill sergeants and drum majors have carried sticks, and the fashion may have come from that fact. Soldiers as a rule buy their own sticks, but in one or two regiments a recruit is presented with one when he gets his uniform. If this gets lost, however, he has to buy the next and subsequent ones.

There is a story told of a soldier one day who couldn't find his cane and,
knowing he would be challenged if he didn't have something in his hand, quietly picked up a poker and passed through the gate all right with it in his fist.—Dundee Advertiser.

They followed it and at last discovered

Antiquity of the Organ.

The organ is the most magnificent and comprehensive of all musical instruments. While the pipes of Pan,
aside from that mythical personage,
indicate a very ancient use of pipes as a means of producing musical sounds,
the "water organ of the ancients" furnishes to the student of organ history
the first tangible clew regarding the remote evolution of the instrument.
In the second century the magriphe,
an organ of ten pipes with a crude keyboard, is said to have existed, but accounts of this instrument are involved in much obscurity. It is averred that an organ, the gift of Constantine, was in the possession of King
Pepin of France in 757, but Aldehelm,
a monk, makes mention of an organ with
"gilt pipes" as far back as the year 700.

SERBIA IS NEXT AIM OF KAISER

Teuton Army of 500,000 Assembled Near Border.

ACTIVITY ON EAST FRONT

General Von Hindenburg's Armies Pressing the Russians Hard at Dvinsk and Threatening Minsk. Turks Defeated by the British in Mesopotamia — Date of Bulgaria's Entry Into the War.

London, Sept. 30.—Dispatches from Athens, received here, report that an Austro-German army 500,000 strong is assembling for an offensive against Serbia.

The Germans continue to strike hard at the Russian forces all along their front. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is delivering heavy strokes against Dvinsk while his colleague on his right is pushing forward to the east of Vitebsk and Molochno in an attempt to turn the Russian position, and has now reached a point to the north of Minsk, which another army is advancing upon from the southwest. Field Marshal Von Mackensen and Prince Leopold of Bavaria apparently are inactive, owing doubtless to the marshes, which are now impassable, but General Von Linsingen is still pressing hard on the Russians in Volhynia.

It is expected that the weather will soon put an end to the operations in the east, as with the continued rains the rivers can not be forded, and the Russians, wherever possible, are getting behind them.

The British have inflicted another serious defeat on the Turks in Mesopotamia. The Tigris army, after suffering heavy losses, is in flight toward Bagdad. Thus, the three armies which the Turks sent to Mesopotamia against the Anglo-Indian invaders have been scattered. In May the Tigris army was driven back from Kurna to north of Amara; the army of Kurna was driven from Ahwaz, and the army of the Euphrates was last heard of as fugitive on the river somewhere north of Nairiz.

them come off with "Gets-It." It just loosens the corn from the true flesh, easily, and then makes it come "clean off." 48 hours ends corns for keeps. It makes the use of tape, corn-squeezing bandages, irritating salves, knives, scissors, and razors really look ridiculous. Get rid of those corns quickly, surely, painlessly—just easily—with "Gets-It." For warts and bunions, too. It's the 20th century way.

DESERTED CHILDREN DROWNED

SLEUTHS SEARCHING FOR A BABY FARM

Bodies of Twelve Infants Are Found in River.

New York, Sept. 30.—The finding of the bodies of twelve babies, from a day to a week old, in the East river, on the Williamsburg side, led the police to believe that somewhere in the Williamsburg section there is a baby farm. All the bodies have been found in the last four weeks.

Active search for the place from which the bodies were taken to the river was begun as Joseph Miller, a watchman on the docks, found the bodies of two baby girls not more than a few days old floating in the river. That confirmed Coroner Wagner in his suspicion and he said he was sure that all the bodies came from the same place. There were other things to make a "baby farm" seem the only explanation of the finding of so many bodies in so short a time. They have been of about the same age, been in the water for not more than three or four hours and have been found at about the same time in the evening.

The water front in this section is occupied by factories and men with packages and bundles are constantly passing all during the day. It would be easy for anyone to drop a small bundle off a dock without attracting attention.

Columbus, Sept. 30.—Plans for securing an executive state headquarters building for the Ohio State Sunday School association will be resumed "after Ohio goes dry this November," Dr. W. G. Clippinger, president of the association, announced at the meeting of the men's institute of methods. The session was in connection with the state adult Bible conference. Resolutions indorsing the dry amendment, woman suffrage and the single standard of morals were adopted by the men. R. A. Doan of Cincinnati was elected president and Dr. D. J. Darling of Columbus general secretary.

POWDER MILL WORKMEN DIE

Haskell, N. J., Sept. 30.—Three workmen at the plant of the E. I. The dead are Edward Herring of Haskell, James Watson of Paterson and Fred Williams of Riverdale.

BANKERS OF CHICAGO TO PASS LOAN

New York, Sept. 30.—Financiers here say that New York banks and individuals will take at least 60 per cent of the proposed loan to the allies, or in the neighborhood of $300,000,000, perhaps a little more. More than one-third of this amount, it was said, has already been subscribed for by individual investors of great wealth or much ready money. In this number, it was said, could be counted the heads of the industries now engaged in making munitions of war as well as the possessors of great wealth. John D. Rockefeller, it is rumored, will subscribe for a block of the bonds.

Chicago banks are not expected to form a group. German influences, it is said, are so strong in the banks out there, on the boards and among the depositors, that the banks could not safely appear. Queries have been received from a dozen other cities. To every inquiry, it was said, J. P. Morgan & Co., acting upon the part of organizers, sent a telegraphic invitation for the banks to form a group and come in.

NEW CORN CURE PRINCIPLE

Dr. Hunt's Wonderful Penetration Method. PRICE ONLY 10c.

It remained for Dr. Hunt of Sidney, Ohio, to solve the corn problem. Folks had tried other remedies with only partial success. So, Dr. Hunt got at the root of the matter by getting at the root of the corn with his wonderful penetration method.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Trim plaster size of corn and apply.

An amazing ingredient, discovered by Dr. Hunt penetrates the corn, eases it immediately, loosens it root and branch so that in two days the corn lifts right out.

No pain, no throbbing toe, no bulky uncomfortable pads to press on the sore spot, no discomfort whatever. Wear your regular shoes. Corn is cured while you walk about. Don't use caustic ingredients that eat off only the top of the corn and stimulate its further growth. Cure your corn the new way, the scientific way by using Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure. Cures by penetration.

Ten cents brings you a box-full. Guaranteed or money back. Sold by all druggists and shoe dealers. Or, send ten cents in stamps to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

Large box containing 20 plasters twenty-five cents.

The Price of Exchange

There has been quite a good deal of speculation as to just what was meant when the news dispatches told us that the price of foreign exchange was falling.

Most of us could not understand how the English pound sterling could fluctuate in price.

Here is the way the Outlook explains the matter.

Mr. Smith, an American, sells 1000 pounds of sterling worth of cotton to Mr. Brown, an Englishman, in London. The price agreed upon for all such transactions is commonly expressed in English money—pounds, shillings and pence. In ordinary times the financial routine is as follows: Mr. Smith makes a draft on Mr. Brown for 1000 pounds. He could, if he chose, send a messenger over to London and get the 1000 sovereigns, but the expense of such a method of getting his money would be so great as to be prohibitive. Mr. Smith's office is in New York. There is another merchant in New York, Mr. Jones, who owes money in London. He has bought English goods and wants to pay for them. Like Mr. Smith, he does not want to send a messenger to London with his money. He is looking about for some means of paying his bill easily and cheaply. He finds out at a banker's that there is another merchant, Mr. Smith, who has drawn a draft on London for 1000 pounds. He buys it of him through the bank, and mails the draft to London. Mr. Brown, through his English banker, honors the draft. Mr. Jones thus easily pays his debts, and Mr. Smith with equal ease gets the money for his cotton.

The French and English financiers have been negotiating with our American bankers for the purpose of closing a loan which will prevent the exchange of those nations at a steady figure and put an end to the fluctuations in the price of exchange. The explanation quoted above from the Outlook will enable us to understand the whys and wherefores of a problem which is not familiar, especially in rural districts.

A Western Idea

A western newspaper—one of a great number published in the smaller communities of this country enthusiastically devoted to the service of the particular community its people and its business enterprises—has hit upon quite a novel and effective means of demonstrating to its readers the folly and the injustice of patronizing the big mail order houses and passing by the home business men.

The editor of the paper informs his readers that one of the public roads leading into the town is in a particularly bad condition and that he has sent a letter to each of several of the big mail order houses of the larger cities asking them to make a contribution to be expended in repairs. No doubt, the editor says, the big mail order houses will make haste to comply with the request and forward a substantial sum of money.

The editor, perhaps sarcastically, asserts that certainly, as these big mail order houses pay no taxes in the community and are receiving big sums from the people they will see the justice of the request.

The incident is worthy of consideration by every resident of the rural communities who patronize or even considers seriously of patronizing the out side mail order house.

The plan adopted by the loyal editor of the small western newspaper should be called to the attention of the people all over the nation.

It is an eye opener.

Of course there are a multitude of reasons why the buyer should deal in his home market but this one reason so clearly demonstrated is sufficient to convince anyone possessed of any intention to do right by himself.

Another time wholesome and novel ideas have come out of that great wide awake "west" of ours.

"Going Up."

Prices in the stock markets are still traveling upward, telling a tale of general prosperity in the industrial and commercial activities of the nation.

Not only have the prices of securities reached, as a result of the phenomenal rise of last week, been steadily maintained without any fall of consequence, but in most instances the prices recorded last week have been exceeded in the quotations of the present week.

It is absolutely certain that the advance in price is not due to any stock jobbing manipulations. In the first place the advance is too pronounced and the list of stocks showing an increased price embraces too great a variety of securities. In fact almost every commercial and industrial stock is in on the big boom.

In the second place the advance of last week, remarkably pronounced as it was, could not have been maintained and exceeded by this week's market if there had not been substantial cause existing justifying the increase.

The folks who love to talk hard times have at last been compelled to acknowledge that there is no need for gloom now.

Some few still cling to pessimistic prophecy and are arguing excuses for the revival of business, but they find few sympathizers.

Poetry For Today

WHEN WE GROW OLD.

When we grow old, and when the way
Has wearier grown, maybe,
I wonder will you look that day
As truthfully to me?
When we grow old, sweetheart, and when
Love's tenderest tales are told,
What new ones shall we whisper then,
Dear love, when we grow old?

Now Time is young—how light, how young,
We scarce can hear his feet,
Save that each footfall leaves some song
To make our dreaming sweet.
But Time steals on, sweetheart, and when
His steps have heavier grown,
I wonder, shall we hear, then,
The music we have known?

Dear heart, when we grow old, I ween,
Your hands in mine I'll take,
And all the old, old love has been
We'll tell for new love's sake.
What though each passing year may bring
A halting speech and slow,
As truly as of yore 'twill ring,
"Dear love, I love you so."

Some men get a lot of comfort out of the reflection that there are worse people in the world than they are.

When a man goes into a kalf to get a beer costing 5 cents he will meet six acquaintances who are drinking fifteen cent drinks. So he has to ask them what they will have. And instead of paying a nickel the man pays $1 for his beer. But the man doesn't mind it so much because he thinks he is a sport. But he isn't a sport. He is a coward and a sucker.

Antiquity of the Organ.
The organ is the most magnificent and comprehensive of all musical instruments. While the pipes of Pan, aside from that mythical personage, indicate a very ancient use of pipes as a means of producing musical sounds, the "water organ of the ancients" furnishes to the student of organ history the first tangible clue regarding the remote evolution of the instrument. In the second century the magripha, an organ of ten pipes with a crude keyboard, is said to have existed, but accounts of this instrument are involved in much obscurity. It is averred that an organ, the gift of Constantine, was in the possession of King Pepin of France in 757, but Aldhelm, a monk, makes mention of an organ with "gilt pipes" as far back as the year 700.

MAY RESCIND ACTION ON LIGHTING CONTRACT

Former Legislation May Be Annulled By City Council and Call for Bids for New Lights Be Authorized in Order to Eliminate All Question of Validity.

At the next meeting of the city council, it is expected that council will rescind its former action upon the lighting contract with the city and start legislation all over again in order that there cannot be any question as to the legality of the next contract. Whether the new contract will be materially changed or remain as it is, is not known.

The above information comes from an apparently reliable source and if the former action of council is rescinded and the legislation started over again, many weeks must necessarily elapse while the invitation for bids by advertisement, is extended, in order that there may be no question as to the legality of the next contract.

It will be recalled that in a recent suit filed by R. C. Hunt the validity of the contract is attacked upon the grounds that proper invitation for bids was not extended and that the contract was closed up without asking for bids from other lighting concerns, other than upon the first plans contemplated.

When the meeting is held Solicitor Gregg will, in all probability hold that in order to place the contracts for lights upon an absolutely safe basis it will be necessary for council to rescind its former action and start proceedings all over again from the time of calling for bids to confirming the contract with the company submitting the lowest bid.

With the injunction suit on the one side and the matter of re-advertising for bids on the other, Washington may not obtain the first of her new lights before sometime next spring.

INJUNCTION SUIT FILED TO PROTECT NEW PAVING

Attempt to Use Traction Engine in Moving House Over Several Squares of Paved Street Brings Down Prompt Action on Part of City Authorities, Who Obtain Restraining Order.

An injunction suit of deep interest to Washington citizens, particularly those residing on the improved streets, was filed by Solicitor Pope Gregg and Service Director Chas. Gerstner, on behalf of the city, in common pleas court Thursday morning, in which Harvey Culberson is enjoined from removing a house from Sycamore street to the northern part of the city by pulling the structure over North street by the aid of a traction engine.

When the city authorities learned that such a project was under contemplation they immediately launched the suit and Judge Carpenter issued the restraining order.

The plaintiffs' petition alleges that the defendant, engaged in the business of house moving, contemplated the removal of a house from Sycamore street, over North street to a point beyond the B. & O. railroad, and that defendant proposed to use a traction engine with lugs on the rear wheels to pull the building, and that such means of transportation would greatly damage the brick paving, which recently had been laid.

The restraining order was issued and notice immediately served upon the defendant, with the result that the street was saved the ordeal of bearing up the heavy engine.

It is the intention of the city authorities to rigidly enforce all laws protecting the newly paved streets, and the passage of a traction engine may be regarded as sufficient grounds for damage suit or restraining order.

In a supplementary petition filed by Solicitor Gregg, Thursday afternoon, O. Robinett was made a defendant in the action, the first named defendant declaring that Robinett was in charge of moving the house in question.

LIFETIME RESIDENT CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. Margaret E. Rockwell, widow of the late Milo Rockwell, and one of the older residents of this city held in high esteem throughout the community, died Thursday morning at her residence on Washington avenue.

Mrs. Rockwell was in her eighty-third year and had lived out the greater part of her days in the home where she peacefully answered the eternal summons.

A gentle, lovely woman, the friends who sympathize with her two children, Miss Abbie and Mr. Warren, both entirely devoted to their mother, are many.

Mrs. Rockwell is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Mary Marcy of Columbus, who was with her during her last illness. The late Major James F. Cook was a brother.

Although always frail Mrs. Rockwell had been in her usual health until she suffered a slight stroke of paralysis several weeks ago.

The funeral services will be held at the residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Washington cemetery.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

STINSON—Mrs. Ann Stinson, mother of W. L. Stinson, well known cattle shipper, died Wednesday at her home in Greenfield. The funeral will be held Saturday at the residence.

SPANGLER WILL LEAVE THE B. & O.

With the resignation of N. G. Spangler as division freight agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Chillicothe, on October 1, following his election as First Vice-President and special representative of the Columbus Mutual Life Insurance Company, important changes in the traffic department will take place according to an announcement made at the headquarters of the railroad.

The resignation of Mr. Spangler was received with reluctance by the Baltimore & Ohio with which Mr. Spangler serves business relations after 25 years in the service of the company.

MONSTER CIRCUS PASSES THROUGH

Between midnight and four o'clock Thursday morning Barnum and Bailey's big circus passed through this city over the C. H. & D. railroad, bound for Xenia, where stop was made for the day.

The big circus was loaded on four long trains, the four sections containing a total of eighty cars.

Very few Washington citizens saw the famous show in its nocturnal journey.

Misses Vonna and Evangeline Robinson are spending the week in Columbus.

Mrs. L. C. McLean of Magnetic Springs is the guest of her sister-in-law, Miss Rose McLean, and accompanied Miss McLean to Greenfield for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mallow motored to Columbus Thursday to attend the Grand Circuit Races.

It will be of interest to many friends, and especially brother Elks of Mr. W. J. Barnett, formerly of this city, now of Shawnee, Okla., to learn that Mr. Barnett is one of three Oklahoma representatives of the B. P. O. E. announced for the coming year by Grand Exalted Ruler Nicholson, B. P. O. Elks in Boston, Mass. Mr. Barnett has risen to prominence in the world of Elksdom during the past few years, this appointment being one of several with which he has been honored.

Miss Grace Giffin, a teacher in the Washington C. H. schools, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents here. Owing to the work of remodeling in the building where Miss Grace teaches she has only the morning session on duty.—Wilmington Journal.

Mr. Al Clouser went to Columbus Thursday to spend the remainder of the week visiting relatives and attending the races.

Mr. Wm. M. Campbell was a business visitor in Columbus Wednesday.

Mr. R. S. Quinn is spending several days with his daughter, Mrs. Robert B. Palmer, and family, in Cincinnati.

Mr. Robert Cullen, of Akron, is spending the week with his brother, Mr. Charles Cullen, and family.

Dr. Clayton Lanum attended the Grand Circuit races in Columbus Wednesday.

Winchell Craig left Wednesday evening for Baltimore, Md., to enter Johns Hopkins University for his medical course. Until the last week, Mr. Craig had not expected to gain admission to this university, owing to his late application.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knedler left Wednesday afternoon for Watertown, S. Da., where they will visit friends before touring in the west.

Mrs. L. P. Howell returned Thursday evening from Columbus, where she has been visiting and attending the Adult Bible Class convention.

Mr. Sam Kessell of the Kessell store is a business visitor in Hamilton.

Mrs. Joseph H. Harper and daughter Miss Helen are spending a couple of days in Columbus with Mr. Harper to see "Daddy Long Legs" at the Hartman Theater.

Mrs. Ben Keller and Miss Iris Thompson were visitors in Newark Wednesday.

Mrs. R. W. Hutson, who has been visiting her parents, Capt. and Mrs. George C. Jenkins, the past six months, returned Thursday morning to her home in Charleston, S. Ca.

Mrs. Willard Story and Miss Elizabeth Ballard went to Circleville Thursday morning to attend the wedding of Miss Helen Fickardt and Mr. Fred Gunning, celebrated in the Episcopal church at half past six o'clock Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. H. Barlow, daughter-in-law Mrs. Foy King and baby daughter, of Sabina, were guests Wednesday of Mrs. Frank Morris and family, enroute to Dayton for several days' visit.

Mrs. Charles Allen and daughter, Mrs. Walter McCoy, of Greensburg, Ind., are spending the day in Columbus, going on to Circleville this evening to attend the wedding of Miss Helen Fickardt and Mr. Fred Gunning. The bride is a cousin of Mrs. Allen.

Miss Bertha Summers has returned to her position in the dress goods department of the Frank L. Stutson store after a summer's vacation, part of which was spent with friends in Cincinnati and Chillicothe.

Messrs Frank D. Bradley, Noah Smith, Os Briggs, Damon Baker and Harry Baughn were among Wednesday's visitors at the Grand Circuit races.

Mrs. J. T. Tuttle spent Wednesday in Columbus.

A telephone message received by Mrs. Will Sprenger at noon Thursday said that Hon. and Mrs. H. L. Hadley, accompanied by Mr. Sprenger from Boston, Mass., had reached Columbus and would continue the trip to their home in this city by automobile, arriving some time this afternoon.

Mrs. C. A. Reid extended the hospitality of her spacious home to a large number of women at the Kensington given by the entertainment committee of the Presbyterian Ladies' Missionary society, Wednesday afternoon. Entertaining with Mrs. Reid were Mesdames James Crawford, Calvin Holmes and Miss Rose McLean.

The affair was made delightful in every way. A profusion of gorgeous fall flowers, brilliant scarlet dahlias, asters and cosmos, gracefully arranged in brass, silver and cut glass vases, filled the rooms and the spirit of sociability was paramount.

A beautiful program of music enhanced the attractions of the gathering.

Mrs. Walter Meek of Denver, Col., who is the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. R. S. Quinn, graciously responded to urgent requests with a group of lovely songs, "I Hear You Calling Me,"—Harold Harford; "Little Gray Home in the West," and "Perfect Peace."

Miss Meek not only possesses a beautiful resonant soprano, but sings with such exquisite sympathy and musical feeling that she charms her listeners doubly.

Miss Ruth Reid gave an artistic piano interpretation of Grottechalk's "Last Hope," and a number of superb Victrola numbers rounded out the program.

The hostess served an appetizing collation. The unusually large silver offering was gratifying to the society.

Among the guests were Mrs. Walter Meek and little daughter Eleanor, of Denver, Colo., Mrs. Robert Schenck of Dayton, and Miss Anna Louise Ustick of Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Deheart pleasantly entertained two tables of Finch Wednesday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barney.

Miss Marie Cook enjoyably entertained ten boys of her Sunday school class of the Church of Christ, at her home, Wednesday evening.

Music and games furnished a jolly evening and the hostess served tempting refreshments.

Mrs. Rush Hays and Miss Lola Ream assisted in the hospitalities.

French Report Gains In Artois and Champagne.

SEIZE IMPORTANT HEIGHT

Dominates Surrounding Country and Will Imperil German Communications—German Casualties In Five Days' Fighting Said to Exceed 120,000—Swiss Border Closed, Forecasting New Operation.

Paris, Sept. 30.—German casualties in killed, wounded and prisoners as a result of the allies' five-day offensive are, according to the French war office, in excess of 120,000.

The amount of booty is enormous. Already seventy-nine cannon have been dragged to the rear of the French lines, with a quantity of uncounted material, including rifles, machine guns, ammunition and supplies. The battle continues without respite. In Artois the French troops pressed forward step by step until they had reached the dominating height known as Hill 140, and the extensive orchards to the south. The hill commands a great expanse of country to the north, and once the French guns are placed on its summit the German communications for miles around will be imperiled.

In Champagne the struggle continues no less furiously. French troops are gradually making their way up the Tahure heights and are closing in along the approaches to the village itself. These heights, like the crest of Hill 140 in Artois, will afford the French guns a clear sweep towards the German communications at the rear and will make it possible to so embarrass the German operations that a continued defense of that region will be very uphill work.

East of Tahure and north of Masnières the French made fresh gains, in spite of the furious resistance being offered by the Germans. There is no doubt about the character of this resistance. The Germans are doing the stiffest fighting yet displayed by them in the west.

There is a strong likelihood that some new operation of great importance is about to be launched. Such at least would seem to be the case from the fact that the military authorities have ordered the Swiss frontier closed to all traffic. In addition, telegrams to certain foreign countries can be filed only subject to a delay of forty-eight hours.

It is impossible to form any adequate idea of the casualties on the French side, as the war office is continuing its previous practice of retaining strictly silent on this subject. It is reported, however, that trains loaded with wounded soldiers have arrived in Paris.

CUBANS DEAD SET AGAINST LIFE TENURE

Havana, Sept. 30.—Ex-President Gomez, who brought about the revolution of 1906 to prevent the re-election of Tomas Estrada Palma, says that he believes the re-election of President Menocal will result in another revolution or at least in great political disquiet. "I do not believe that President Menocal will seek re-election," he said, "because he is a patriot. A re-election at such a time, when the country is still in a formative stage, would mean revolution. It was for this reason that I relinquished the opportunity for another term as president. It would be the gravest error for any man to attempt to place himself at the head of the government for a second time."

PRETTY SOFT FOR FAVORED NINETY-NINE

New York, Sept. 30.—One seventh of all the land in New York city is owned by ninety-nine families, according to a statement issued by Frederick C. Leubuscher, president of the Society of Lower Rents. The assessed value of the land holdings of these ninety-nine families in Manhattan alone is $444,859,212, about one-third of the value of the borough. The families with the most notable holdings are the Astors, Goellets, Vanderbilts, Rhinelanders, McAlpins, Baudouines, Gerrys, Ehrets, Wendels, Hoffmans, Sterns, Morgans and Leards.

DEMAND 8-HOUR DAY

Cincinnati, Sept. 30.—More than 200 machinists in two shops here went on strike when their employers refused to grant an eight hour day and a forty-eight hour week working agreement. A number of other machine companies have been served with the demands and union leaders here claim that at least 1,000 machinists will be on strike by Saturday unless their demands are met.

ORKNEY ISLANDERS.

Proud of Their Norse Descent and Prefer Scenery to Trees.

Miss Elinor Root, who has been visiting in the little known Orkney Islands, tells us that the natives are very proud of their Norse origin, indignantly repudiating the idea that their forbears were Scottish.

"People do not speak here with nearly so broad an accent as the people in Scotland," Miss Root remarked to her hostess, "and I notice the names do not sound Scotch—Cait, Twatt, Flett, Curator, and so on. How is that?"

My hostess stiffened visibly. "They are not Scotch. We are not Scotch. We did not come from Scotland. Have ye never heard of the Norsemen from beyond the seas? We are the descendants of them. We are not of Scotch blood. Ye do not call the Irish English; ye're not to call us Scotch!"

"I beg your pardon," I returned humbly, and to change the subject plunged into the theme of afforestation. The venture was an unfortunate one, as trees refuse to grow in the islands. "Trees spoil the scenery," declared my hostess. "We would not have them if we could. If ye go to the southland ye cannot see anything of the scenery for the trees. We like to see scenery."—Lippincott's Magazine.

SAY MONFORT HAS THE LEAD

Washington, Sept. 30.—It is generally conceded that the next annual encampment of the G. A. R. will be held in Atlantic City. The delegates from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, with strong support from the middle west, have practically edged every other city aspiring for the privilege of entertaining the vets next year off the track. The race for commander in chief of the organization seems to lie between Frank O. Cole of Jersey City and Elias Monfort of Cincinnati, with the latter in the lead. Cincinnati will not only furnish the commander in chief of the G. A. R., but the commander in chief of the Sons of Veterans in the person of A. E. H. Stephens.

Luck. Luck is the main difference between failure and success. It rises like some mysterious fairy from the chaos of events and crowns its victors with an apparently hopeless ignorance of justice.

Luck must be a woman; no man could be so fickle, so fantastic in a choice of favorites.

Luck, however, has one great virtue. Although she will desert the gambler as suddenly as she came to him, she is likely to be faithful to those of her proteges who are the steadiest workers. She appears to be on the side of the biggest battalions.—Life.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR WIRELESS TELEPHONY

Voice Transmitted Across the American Continent.

Washington, Sept. 30.—The world's record for wireless telephony was established here. Speech was successfully transmitted from the giant navy wireless station at Arlington to the Mare Island navy yard, near San Francisco, a distance of approximately 2,200 miles. This is the first time that such a great distance has been bridged by wireless telephony.

Announcement of this great feat was made here by Secretary of the Navy Daniels. A report to the secretary by Captain W. H. G. Bullard, superintendent of the naval radio service, was the basis of Mr. Daniels' announcement.

The successful transmission of the human voice to the Mare Island station was the culmination of several months of experiment on the part of the naval experts engaged in the development of radio telephony. These experiments have been conducted in co-operation with the American Telephone and Telegraph company and with the Western Electric company. Officials of both concerns were present at the successful transmission and took part in the conversations with San Francisco.

While naval officers are most reserved in making any estimates of the military value of the new achievement, they held out that a person in land may converse with another person hundreds of miles out at sea, as a possibility of the near future.

INCENDIARY BOMBS.

Terrific Heat of Thermite, the Stuff With Which They Are Filled.

Incendiary bombs are one of the most fearful engines of modern warfare. The reason they throw out such a terrific heat is because they are filled with thermite.

Thermite is so hot when it is fired that it will melt iron and steel with the greatest ease and even burn its way through granite.

This marvelous substance was discovered in 1902. It is really a mixture of coarsely powdered aluminum and oxide of iron. It can't be fired by itself, but has to be started by another mixture consisting of finely powdered aluminum and barium peroxide.

The wonderful heating power of this terrible substance has been made use of all over the world in iron and steel welding. Steel joints are welded solidly together in a few moments by placing a little thermite round the joint and firing it.

The thermite mixture is as safe to handle or store as sawdust—safer, in fact. Only the special mixture or a very high temperature indeed will set it on fire. If necessary the two substances from which thermite is made can be taken separately and mixed when required, and there is no danger whatever in aluminum powder or oxide of iron, which is, practically speaking, iron rust, yet the mixture makes up one of the hottest substances known.—Pearson's Weekly.

BURTON SPEAKS

Cleveland, Sept. 30.—Former United States Senator Theodore E. Burton in an address before the Cleveland Advertising club advocated compulsory military training for the United States to place the country in a state of "preparedness." Mr. Burton declared he did not believe in training as enforced in conscription countries, but does believe that some military training should be made compulsory.

DREADNOUGHT CALIFORNIA WILL HAVE "CLIPPER" BOW.

New Battleship by Her Graceful Stem Will Bring Drastic Changes.

The new battleship California, the keel of which will soon be laid, will be the world's first electric Dreadnought and from point of size will be greater than any foreign battleship built or building. The California and her two sister ships, the Mississippi and the Idaho, already authorized, will each displace 32,000 tons, almost 1,000 tons more than the new Dreadnought Pennsylvania, now on the way to completion.

The California will be a ship of innovations. She will cost $7,800,000 without her armor or armament, which is expected to cost as much more. She will have a speed of twenty-one knots an hour, will be 624 feet long, ninety-seven feet across her beam and will draw thirty feet of water. She will carry twelve fourteen-inch guns, mounted three abreast in a turret, and twenty-two five-inch rapid fire guns and will have four submerged torpedo tubes.

The principal feature of the new Dreadnought, however, is the machinery for propelling her by electricity. She will be driven by motors which will deliver electricity made by steam. The navy experts believe the electric installation is cheaper than steam propulsion and reduces the weight of machinery. The collier Jupiter has been so successful with electric machinery that the navy feels justified in adapting it to a Dreadnought.

Outwardly the California will bring a drastic change of line and appearance to the battle fleet. Instead of the blunt gray nose of the present day big fighter her bows will be tapered into a graceful, yachtlike stem much like those of the famous clipper sailing ships that carried the American flag at the head of the world's swiftest craft in the forties and fifties.

STORM SWEEP COAST

New Orleans In the Path of the Hurricane.

HEAVY DAMAGE RECORDED

Loss of Life and Property in Southern Louisiana and Mississippi Believed Considerable — Levee Gives Way South of New Orleans—All Communications With Outside World Cut Off For Hours.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 30.—The city of New Orleans and the Louisiana and Mississippi gulf coast were swept by a hurricane that paralyzed communication and caused loss of life and property.

The river levees below New Orleans have broken, houses have been washed away and several lives have been lost in that section, according to a wireless message received here.

The business section of Biloxi, Miss., is under six feet of water, and train service has been abandoned because of washouts throughout a large section about Bay St. Louis.

Last reports coming from New Orleans before all means of communication were lost said winds drove the water in Lake Pontchartrain above the sea wall and Milneburg and other New Orleans suburbs along the lake were partially under water.

The wind reached a velocity of thirty miles an hour at New Orleans and Bay St. Louis, according to reports reaching here. Wire communication was possible only as far as Bay St. Louis, and fragmentary reports from there told of extensive damage to property, but no loss of life. A long trestle of the Louisville and Nashville railroad at The Rigolts, between Bay St. Louis and New Orleans, was reported to have been swept away.

Mobile escaped the worst of the storm, but the wind here was sufficient to drive the water over the wharves at the river front and unroof several houses. There was no serious damage.

The coast guard cutter Tallapoosa, anchored here, made repeated unsuccessful efforts to reach by wireless the Southern Pacific liner Proteus, believed to be in the center of the storm off New Orleans bar.

Telegraphic and train connection between central Mississippi and south Mississippi points and New Orleans have been cut off by the storm.

A wireless received later from New Orleans reported five lives lost and the property damage estimated there now at more than a million. It reported the storm passing west of New Orleans toward Oklahoma.

WOMAN SUES REV. DR. HILL FOR $100,000

New York, Sept. 30.—Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill, pastor of the Metropolitan temple, noted public speaker and writer, was named as defendant in a suit for $100,000, alleging breach of promise of marriage, brought against him by Lucille Covington. At Dr. Hill's office it was said that the clergyman started on a lecture trip which would take him to Michigan. He is expected to return within a week. Nothing was known by his associates of any lawsuit.

Miss Covington is a lecturer upon economics and other topics. Dr. Hill was chaplain of the Republican national conventions in Chicago in 1908 and 1912.

Dr. Hill, who is married, employed Miss Covington for about six months in 1910 as manager of his lecture bureau. Before leaving for the west he declared that she had no valid claim against him.

Burns as a Tax Collector.
In the olden days candles were taxed articles, and it was the duty of Robert Burns as an excise officer to see that the tax was not evaded. He generally looked the other way, however, as when passing through the kitchen one night at William Lorimer's of Kennishall, where the godwife was busy making candles, he merely remarked, "Faith, madam, ye're thrang the night," and passed into the parlor.—St. James' Gazette.

No Cause For Him to Complain.
"See here!" remarked the guest to the new waiter. "There doesn't seem to be any soup on this menu card."
"Oh, no, sir!" replied the waiter nervously. "I didn't spill it at this table. It was the one on the other side of the room."

Whoever is inclined to "view with alarm" now has plenty of material to work from.

PHILLIES TAKE THE PENNANT

Boston, Sept. 30.—The Phillies made sure of the National league pennant by shutting out the Braves, 5 to 0. It was a great day for Manager Moran and Alexander the Great, who showed the assembled thousands how to pitch championship ball. Three thousand of Moran's fellow townsmen came down from Fitchburg to do him honor and to present him with a mammoth floral horseshoe.

MAN IS BADLY GORED BY INFURIATED STEER

Animal, Suffering From Gash in Shoulder, Runs Amuck East of This City and Wild Excitement Ensues—Still at Large When Last Heard Of—Said to Have Come From This City.

A black steer, said to have escaped from a herd in this city, ran amuck east of this city on the Circleville pike, Thursday forenoon and as a result Jesse Johnson, of New Holland, was very badly injured and nearly met death when the animal flung itself upon him and attempted to gore him after Mr. Johnson had prevented the animal from attacking a woman and child in a buggy.

The animal was first noticed near the residence of Harry Taylor, and when near the Porter residence, immediately west of the Bogus road crossing on the Circleville pike, attacked Mr. Johnson and Mr. G. W. Thompson, of the Bogus road succeeded in driving the animal away after it had torn nearly all of Johnson's clothing off and inflicted some ugly cuts and bruises about the face and body.

Continuing onward the animal attacked nearly everything in sight, and D. E. Merston, substitute carrier on Route No. 6 was held up for more than one hour, as well as a number of other persons.

Mr. Steer took complete possession of the road, and everyone was warned to be on the lookout. The animal finally made his way down toward Johnson's Crossing, turned north on the Hess road and was last seen standing along the roadside near the John Lininger farm.

The vicious attacks of the brute created great excitement, and the neighborhood was so aroused that calls were made to the police and to the sheriff, who, after learning that the animal was probably infuriated by a wound in its shoulder and not suffering from hydrophobia turned the matter over to the township trustees of Marion township.

After Mr. Johnson was injured he was taken to the home of Harry Taylor, on the Circleville pike, and a physician was called from this city. The wounds were dressed and Mr. Johnson later returned to New Holland.

Later—it has been learned that the animal is one of three which escaped from the C. H. & D. stock pens in this city, Wednesday night, when two car loads of the animals were unloaded for feed and water. The other two have been recaptured and placed in the pens, while the remainder which did not break loose, were reloaded and shipped onward.

HISTORIC PARK IS DAMAGED BY SHOW

"Never Again!" says Chillicothe. The Barnum and Bailey circus didn't do a thing to Yoctangee park in that city—that is it didn't do a thing but leave the pretty park much resembling a Flanders battlefield.

It is claimed that the circus overstepped its contract, and that a number of big tents were pitched among the flower beds, shrubbery and well kept lawn, and that when the show left the park had suffered several hundred dollars' damage. That's why Chillie says "Never again."

OF BICYCLE THIEF

Chief Moore is on the track of the thief who stole a bicycle from Elmer Black, of Jackson, Saturday night.

The wheel was stolen from the alley near Dale's store, and the man's corn knife, clothing and other articles were carried on the wheel.

Chief Moore has succeeded in obtaining the corn knife and part of the clothing and hopes to have the thief within a short time.

Carranza probably nurses the belief that eventually some one must be recognized, and if he is the man he wants to name his own vice president and cabinet.

It is difficult to understand why war should be regarded as inevitable when nobody on earth can be found who will admit that he or she actually desires it.

Barrister's Fees.

The barrister's fees are irrecoverable in law, but he can pick and choose his customers and can also insist on cash in advance. Until recently every barrister had on his table a gentle reminder in the way of a fee bowl. In earlier times the client used to drop surreptitiously the money in a little bag at the back of counsel's gown. A trace of this receptacle still figures in legal costume.—London Chronicle.

My friends often ask
"Where do you get
such stunning Outfits?"

THEY seem to think when they see me in my new PRINTZESS suit that I have found some genius of a tailor who is particularly apt in conceiving designs that are just right for my requirements and who is so artistic that he can select the proper materials, colors and trimmings to make my suit stand out from the crowd. As a matter of fact I despaired long ago of finding any tailor in town who could give me the kind of suit I was dreaming about, but I did find a designer elsewhere who is paid thousands of dollars every year for designing garments such as the one I am wearing, and so it's no wonder that my outfits are stunning, is it? Especially when you consider that this designer has associated with him workmen who are masters in the tailoring craft, who put in every garment the perfection of material and lining, who are so sure of their product that they are willing to guarantee it to give you perfect satisfaction. We have one that you will think was made just for you, and we want you to see it. Come into our garment department and ask one of our garment saleswomen about it.

GERMANS ADMIT LOSS OF STRATEGIC WORKS

Relentless Battering Carries Allies Well Into German Positions and Important Gains Are Made at Many Points.

RUSSIANS DRIVE GERMANS BACK 25 MILES AT ONE POINT IN THE EAST

Germanic Line of Communication Is Seriously Threatened By Latest Rush of French—Russ Fall Back at Osmiana—Greece Votes $30,000,000 Loan and the Enthusiasm Is High—Turks Dejected Over Continued Successes of Allies—French Lose Heavily Near Aras.

By Associated Press. London, September 30.—The great drive of the entente allies on the western front is making important headway in the Champagne region of France.

Paris claims a notable advance, and Berlin concedes that the French have gained ground, announcing that hill No. 191, north of Massignes, has been lost to the French.

It is likewise admitted by German army headquarters that French troops succeeded in penetrating the German lines in two small sections near Souchez, south of Lens, in the Artois region.

French attacks south of Aras were easily repulsed, while a brigade that pushed through the German outer line at one point in the Champagne was broken up, 800 men being captured and others destroyed, Berlin declares.

The Paris War Office announces that a footing in the second German line of defense was secured at several points.

The only resistance of the Germans in the Artois district, where the British and French are pushing their lines toward Lens with the eventual taking of the important city of Lille apparently in view, was an extremely violent bombardment of the new allies' position east of Souchez.

Berlin, via London, September 30.—Loss of another position in France to the allies, as a result of the great battle now in progress, is announced in the official statement from the War Office today.

The Germans lost hill No. 191, which is a position in the Champagne region north of the town of Massignes.

Petrograd, via London, September 30.—Territorial gains of considerable extent by the Russians are indicated by the War Office.

The Germans have been pushed back from the terminal station at Gluboki, for a gain of 25 miles, to a point midway to the Vilna-Dvinsk railway.

Battles of great intensity are being fought on the line from Koziany on the Disna river, to Krivo.

Paris, September 30.—Further important gains by the French, in the vigorous continuation of the general offensive movement of the entente allies on the western front, are reported by the French War Office today.

French troops gained a footing in the German second line of defense in the Champagne region, it is announced.

They have taken an important defensive work of the Germans south of Ripont, which is 4 miles north-west of Massignes, back of which lies an important junction on the railway which parallels the German front in this region.

The allied attacks along a front in the west totalling less than 30 miles are regarded in England as only a beginning of the offensive movement.

The Russians are still holding off von Hindenburg's attacks at Dvinsk but are apparently having more difficulty in resisting the energetic movement he is making against them near Osmiana, where Petrograd admits the Russians have been forced to retire somewhat.

Athens, Greece, September 30.—The Greek chamber, in a special session today, ratified the action of government in decreeing a general mobilization of the army, and authorized a loan of $30,000,000.

Bills proclaiming a state of siege in Macedonia, and providing for the families of men called to the colors, were enthusiastically applauded and voted.

Premier Venizelos was greeted enthusiastically when he entered the building.

He said, in an address to the chamber, that mobilization of the Greek forces was indispensable, on account of Bulgaria's military measures.

He stated, however, that Bulgaria had explained to Greece that she had no intention of adopting an aggressive attitude toward Greece or Serbia.

Copenhagen, via London, September 30.—"News of the offensive on the western front is taken very seriously here," says the Berlin correspondent of the Politiken.

"The Tageblatt remarks that nothing would be more foolish than to overlook the terrible seriousness of the recent battles in the west."

U. S. VESSEL BLOWN UP

By Associated Press. Washington, September 30.—The American sailing ship Vincent was blown up September 29, in the White Sea, and is a total loss.

The crew was saved, but her captain and three men were injured and are being treated in a hospital at Archangel.

Consular dispatches to the State Department today reported the disaster.

CHIEF POINTS ARE SETTLED

By Associated Press. New York, September 30.—The committee in charge of the sale of the $500,000,000 Anglo-French bonds has cleared away a number of details. Chief of those which were settled are: That the life of the underwriting syndicate is to be 60 days; the sum subscribed by banks will be left on deposit with the subscribers until needed and then withdrawn proportionately, and the profit of the syndicate members will be one and three quarters per cent.

"JUSTIFY" ACT OF DESTRUCTION

By Associated Press. Berlin, wireless, September 30.—In a pamphlet dealing with the shelling of the Rheims cathedral, the Prussian Ministry of War deduces evidence to prove that the cathedral was used by the French as an observation station, says the Overseas News Agency.

ZEPPELINS ON WING

By Associated Press. London, September 30.—Six Zeppelin dirigible balloons were sighted today over Aerschot, 23 miles north-east of Brussels.

The airships were bound in a westerly direction.

This information was contained in a dispatch from Amsterdam to the Central News Agency.

Due west of Aerschot lies Dover and the English channel.

NOTABLES DIE IN OFFENSIVE

By Associated Press. London, September 30.—The British casualties in the recent offensive action on the western front included Lieutenant General Sir Thompson Capper and Major General G. H. Thesiger, both killed.

1500 HOVER ON BORDER

By Associated Press. Brownsville, Texas, September 30.—A considerable increase in Caranza troops opposite this part of the border was reported today from several reliable sources on the Mexican side.

About 1500 of these troops are said to have taken up stations opposite territory where American patrols are placed.

WILLIS TALK 2000 MILES

By Associated Press. Columbus, September 30.—Over 2000 miles of telephone wires from San Francisco, Governor Willis will converse with friends in the House of Representatives chamber here next Monday evening. Invitations have been sent to 150 officials and friends.

Receivers and transmitters will be installed on every desk in the House of Representatives chamber. A branch line will allow the governor's aged parents, at Delaware, to take part in the conversation.

EXECUTION POSTPONED

Washington, September 30.—At the request of the Swedish minister President Wilson today telegraphed to the governor of Utah, asking a stay of execution for Joseph Hillstrom, a Swedish subject, sentenced to be shot in the Utah state penitentiary at sunrise tomorrow.

Hillstrom was convicted of murder.

SAFE CONDUCT IS DELIVERED

Washington, September 30.—The British ambassador personally delivered to the State Department today a safe conduct under which Dr. Constantin Dumba, the Austrian ambassador, will return to Vienna.

Dr. Dumba expects to sail October 5th.

HUMAN VOICE 4600 MILES BY WIRELESS

By Associated Press.

New Haven, Conn., September 30.—The statement was made by officials of telephone companies here today that at last midnight messages by wireless telephone were sent from the wireless telegraph station at Arlington, Md., to Honolulu, Hawaii, a distance of about 4,600 miles.

It is stated that the tests were a complete success.

BONDS READY IN TEN DAYS

By Associated Press. New York, September 30.—Complete details of marketing the $500,000,000 joint Anglo-French five year bonds probably will be announced late today by J. P. Morgan & Company.

It was thought that the bonds might be offered for sale within ten days.

TOLL ON GULF IS NEAR 35

By Associated Press. Memphis, Tenn., September 30.—Seven or eight white persons and seventeen negroes were drowned and a score more injured at Frenier, Louisiana, in yesterday's storm, according to reports to the office of the general superintendent of the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley Railroad here today.

Galveston, Texas, September 30.—A wireless message received here this morning from New Orleans stated that at 2 o'clock the water in the streets of the city was receding rapidly, and that the stage of the river was also going down.

This message reported the number of dead in New Orleans at five.

Indications were, the message said, that the damage to property had been considerable.

San Antonio, Texas, September 30.—A wireless from New Orleans to the station at Fort Sam Houston at 10:10 o'clock this morning said:

"Reports conditions are not very bad."

A message received at 7:30, relayed from Galveston, said:

"Last heard water nearly drained from streets of New Orleans. Going down rapidly."

Mobile, Ala., September 30.—All communication with New Orleans, by wire, wireless and rail, has been cut off by the tropical storm since two o'clock this morning.

A wireless message received at Galveston today, sent at that hour, indicated that the storm had passed.

The death list is not expected to exceed ten in New Orleans, but the property damage probably will be heavy.

Telephone and telegraph companies began work this morning repairing the damage. Linemen succeeded in restoring the fallen wires to within 23 miles of New Orleans.

STRIKERS RIOT

THINKS LOAN IS A BLUNDER

By Associated Press. London, September 30.—Asserting that American bankers naturally prefer a loan with some $10,000,000 profit to the importation of gold, which brings no profit, the Manchester Guardian declares editorially:

"There is no reason, however, why the government should indulge in what has every appearance of being a blunder, as costly politically as financially."

DEPUTY IS DISMISSED

By Associated Press. Columbus, September 30.—E. C. Sizer, Democrat, assistant fire marshal at $1,500 a year, was dismissed summarily today by State Fire Marshal Buckley, on specific charges of insubordination and inefficiency.

The specifications in the insubordination charge are, that Sizer failed to make any report during September, turned over to the press official communications of the department and turned in excessive expense accounts.

VETERANS RECOVERING

By Associated Press. Washington, September 30.—Most of the 200 civil war veterans taken to hospitals yesterday when they became exhausted in the G. A. R. parade, had fully recovered today and were ready for participation in the remainder of the annual reunion program.

The veterans had a busy day before them, the program being featured with a reception at the White House by President Wilson to the surviving officers of the civil war.

Elias H. Montfort, of Cincinnati, was one of the four men nominated for commander-in-chief at the G. A. R. business session here today.

INSPECTORS SAVE LIVES BY FINDINGS

By Associated Press. Columbus, September 30.—How the state of Ohio watches over the safety and health of her industrial workers is shown by a report on the inspection of workshops, factories and public buildings between Sept. 1, 1913 and Dec. 31, 1914, made public today by Fred C. Croxton, chief statistician of the industrial commission. The inspections were made and orders issued by the department of workshops and factories under Chief Inspector Thomas P. Kearns, recently resigned.

The report, covering 16 months, shows these facts: 29,995 establishments were inspected; 24,465 inspections were made, resulting in the issuance of 11,220 orders with 31,341 distinct requirements for change in building or working conditions.

A total of 6256 orders, or more than half, were issued to manufacturing establishments, including 1370 making food or kindred products and 1096 making iron, steel and such products; 3253 were issued to hotels and restaurants; 1184 to wholesale and retail stores; 297 to transportation companies and public utilities.

Of the 31,341 requirements for changes, 61 per cent were for protection of life and limb; 22 per cent related to health, sanitation, comfort and moral safeguards; 13 per cent related to the employment of women, children and minors.

SERBIA IS NEXT AIM OF KAISER

Tenton Army of 500,000 Assembled Near Border.

ACTIVITY ON EAST FRONT

General Von Hindenburg's Armies Pressing the Russians Hard at Dvinsk and Threatening Minsk. Turks Defeated by the British in Mesopotamia — Date of Bulgaria's Entry Into the War.

London, Sept. 30.—Dispatches from Athens, received here, report that an Austro-German army 500,000 strong is assembling for an offensive against Serbia.

The Germans continue to strike hard at the Russian forces all along their front. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is delivering heavy strokes against Dvinsk while his colleague on his right is pushing forward to the east of Vileika and Molodechno in an attempt to turn the Russian position, and has now reached a point to the north of Minsk, which another army is advancing upon from the southwest.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen and Prince Leopold of Bavaria apparently are inactive, owing doubtless to the marshes, which are now impassable, but General Von Linsingen is still pressing hard on the Russians in Volhynia.

It is expected that the weather will soon put an end to the operations in the east, as with the continued rains the rivers can not be forded, and the Russians, wherever possible, are getting behind them.

The British have inflicted another serious defeat on the Turks in Mesopotamia. The Tigris army, after suffering heavy losses, is in flight toward Bagdad. Thus, the three armies which the Turks sent to Mesopotamia against the Anglo-Indian invaders have been scattered. In May the Tigris army was driven back from Kurna to north of Amara; the army of Kurna was driven from Ahwaz, and the army of the Euphrates was last heard of as fugitive on the river somewhere north of Nairi.

DESERTED CHILDREN DROWNED

SLEUTHS SEARCHING FOR A BABY FARM

Bodies of Twelve Infants Are Found In River.

New York, Sept. 30.—The finding of the bodies of twelve babies, from a day to a week old, in the East river, on the Williamsburg side, led the police to believe that somewhere in the Williamsburg section there is a baby farm. All the bodies have been found in the last four weeks.

Active search for the place from which the bodies were taken to the river was begun as Joseph Miller, a watchman on the docks, found the bodies of two baby girls not more than a few days old floating in the river. That confirmed Coroner Wagner in his suspicion and he said he was sure that all the bodies came from the same place. There were other things to make a "baby farm" seem the only explanation of the finding of so many bodies in so short a time. They have been of about the same age, been in the water for not more than three or four hours and have been found at about the same time in the evening.

The water front in this section is occupied by factories and men with packages and bundles are constantly passing all during the day. It would be easy for anyone to drop a small bundle off a dock without attracting attention.

INDORSE DRY AMENDMENT

Columbus, Sept. 30.—Plans for securing an executive state headquarters building for the Ohio State Sunday School association will be resumed "after Ohio goes dry this November," Dr. W. G. Clippinger, president of the association, announced at the meeting of the men's institute of methods. The session was in connection with the state adult Bible conference. Resolutions indorsing the dry amendment, woman suffrage and the single standard of morals were adopted by the men. R. A. Doan of Cincinnati was elected president and Dr. D. J. Darling of Columbus general secretary.

POWDER MILL WORKMEN DIE

Haskell, N. J., Sept. 30.—Three workmen at the plant of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Powder company in this town were killed, one was fatally injured and a fifth was terribly burned when 800 pounds of powder exploded while it was being transferred from a truck to a small drying shed. The dead are Edward Herring of Haskell, James Watson of Paterson and Fred Williams of Riverdale.

BANKERS OF CHICAGO TO PASS LOAN

New York, Sept. 30.—Financiers here say that New York banks and individuals will take at least 60 per cent of the proposed loan to the allies, or in the neighborhood of $300,000,000, perhaps a little more. More than one-third of this amount, it was said, has already been subscribed for by individual investors of great wealth or much ready money. In this number, it was said, could be counted the heads of the industries now engaged in making munitions of war as well as the possessors of great wealth. John D. Rockefeller, it is rumored, will subscribe for a block of the bonds.

Chicago banks are not expected to form a group. German influences, it is said, are so strong in the banks out there, on the boards and among the depositors, that the banks could not safely appear. Queries have been received from a dozen other cities. To every inquiry, it was said, J. P. Morgan & Co., acting upon the part of organizers, sent a telegraphic invitation for the banks to form a group and come in.

MINERS REFUSE

Athens, O., Sept. 30.—Locking valley coal miners, in mass meeting here, decided to stand by their contract and to refuse further wage concessions asked by operators of the district. Many operators thereupon predicted that three-fourths of all mines in the Hocking valley will be closed by the middle of November and will remain closed until a new wage agreement may be made next April.

NEW CORN CURE PRINCIPLE

Dr. Hunt's Wonderful Penetration Method. PRICE ONLY 10c.

It remained for Dr. Hunt of Sidney, Ohio, to solve the corn problem. Folks had tried other remedies with only partial success. So, Dr. Hunt got at the root of the matter by getting at the root of the corn with his wonderful penetration method.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Trim plaster size of corn and apply.

An amazing ingredient, discovered by Dr. Hunt, penetrates the corn, eases it immediately, loosens it root and branch so that in two days the corn lifts right out.

No pain, no throbbing toe, no bulky uncomfortable pads to press on the sore spot, no discomfort whatever. Wear your regular shoes. Corn is cured while you walk about. Don't use caustic ingredients that eat off only the top of the corn and stimulate its further growth. Cure your corn the new way, the scientific way by using Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure. Cures by penetration.

Ten cents brings you a box-full. Guaranteed or money back. Sold by all druggists and shoe dealers. Or, send ten cents in stamps to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

The Price of Exchange

There has been quite a good deal of speculation as to just what was meant when the news dispatches told us that the price of foreign exchange was falling.

Most of us could not understand how the English pound sterling could fluctuate in price.

Here is the way the Outlook explains the matter.

Mr. Smith, an American, sells 1000 pounds of sterling worth of cotton to Mr. Brown, an Englishman, in London. The price agreed upon for all such transactions is commonly expressed in English money—pounds, shillings and pence. In ordinary times the financial routine is as follows: Mr. Smith makes a draft on Mr. Brown for 1000 pounds. He could, if he chose, send a messenger over to London and get the 1000 sovereigns, but the expense of such a method of getting his money would be so great as to be prohibitive. Mr. Smith's office is in New York. There is another merchant in New York, Mr. Jones, who owes money in London. He has bought English goods and wants to pay for them. Like Mr. Smith, he does not want to send a messenger to London with his money. He is looking about for some means of paying his bill easily and cheaply. He finds out at a banker's that there is another merchant, Mr. Smith, who has drawn a draft on London for 1000 pounds. He buys it of him through the bank, and mails the draft to London. Mr. Brown, through his English banker, honors the draft. Mr. Jones thus easily pays his debts, and Mr. Smith with equal ease, gets the money for his cotton.

The French and English financiers have been negotiating with our American bankers for the purpose of closing a loan which will prevent the exchange of those nations at a steady figure and put an end to the fluctuations in the price of exchange. The explanation quoted above from the Outlook will enable us to understand the whys and wherefores of a problem which is not familiar, especially in rural districts.

A Western Idea

A western newspaper—one of a great number published in the smaller communities of this country enthusiastically devoted to the service of the particular community its people and its business enterprises—has hit upon quite a novel and effective means of demonstrating to its readers the folly and the injustice of patronizing the big mail order houses and passing by the home business men.

The editor of the paper informs his readers that one of the public roads leading into the town is in a particularly bad condition and that he has sent a letter to each of several of the big mail order houses of the larger cities asking them to make a contribution to be expended in repairs. No doubt, the editor says, the big mail order houses will make haste to comply with the request and forward a substantial sum of money.

The editor, perhaps sarcastically, asserts that certainly, as these big mail order houses pay no taxes in the community and are receiving big sums from the people they will see the justice of the request.

The incident is worthy of consideration by every resident of the rural communities who patronize or even considers seriously of patronizing the out side mail order house.

The plan adopted by the loyal editor of the small western newspaper should be called to the attention of the people all over the nation.

It is an eye opener.

Of course there are a multitude of reasons why the buyer should deal in his home market but this one reason so clearly demonstrated is sufficient to convince anyone possessed of any intention to do right by himself.

Another time wholesome and novel ideas have come out of that great wide awake "west" of ours.

"Going Up."

Prices in the stock markets are still traveling upward, telling a tale of general prosperity in the industrial and commercial activities of the nation.

Not only have the prices of securities reached, as a result of the phenomenal rise of last week, been steadily maintained without any fall of consequence, but in most instances the prices recorded last week have been exceeded in the quotations of the present week.

It is absolutely certain that the advance in price is not due to any stock jobbing manipulations. In the first place the advance is too pronounced and the list of stocks showing an increased price embraces too great a variety of securities. In fact almost every commercial and industrial stock is in on the big boom.

In the second place the advance of last week, remarkably pronounced as it was, could not have been maintained and exceeded by this week's market if there had not been substantial cause existing justifying the increase.

The folks who love to talk hard times have at last been compelled to acknowledge that there is no need for gloom now.

Some few still cling to pessimistic prophecy and are arguing excuses for the revival of business, but they find few sympathizers.

Poetry For Today

WHEN WE GROW OLD.

When we grow old, and when the way
Has wearier grown, maybe,
I wonder will you look that day
As truthfully to me?
When we grow old, sweetheart, and when Love's tenderest tales are told,
What new ones shall we whisper
Then,
Dear love, when we grow old?

Now Time is young—how light, how young,
We scarce can hear his feet,
Save that each footfall leaves some song
To make our dreaming sweet.
But Time steals on, sweetheart, and when
His steps have heavier grown,
I wonder, shall we hear, then,
The music we have known?

Dear heart, when we grow old, I ween,
Your hands in mine I'll take,
And all the old, old love has been
We'll tell for new love's sake.
What though each passing year may bring
A halting speech and slow,
As truly as of yore 'twill ring,
"Dear love, I love you so."

Lord Londonderry once threw the house of lords into roars of laughter during the debate on the second reading of the Irish land bill by gravely declaring that "this is the reason why you have failed to settle the Irish land question in the future as you have done in the past."

In the course of the same speech he concluded a period with: "This is the keystone of the bill. Are you going to kill it?"

Better still was a sentence which he uttered in 1897 when speaking once more on the Irish land question—"That your lordship will see," referring to a quotation he had just made, "indorses up to the hilt what I have said."—London Tatler.

Every now and then you meet a poor boob who really believes that if he wanted to turn himself loose among the women he could make Don Juan look like a piker.

You never saw a man holding down a big executive position who was so proud of his complexion that he let it keep him awake at night.

If you own a car a pedestrian is an ivory domed, slow footed boob who hasn't sense enough to get out of his own way. But if you are a pedestrian a car owner is a swelled headed, arrogant idiot who belongs in an insane asylum.

Some men get a lot of comfort out of the reflection that there are worse people in the world than they are.

When a man goes into a kaff to get a beer costing 5 cents he will meet six acquaintances who are drinking fifteen cent drinks. So he has to ask them what they will have. And instead of paying a nickel the man pays $1 for his beer. But the man doesn't mind it so much because he thinks he is a sport. But he isn't a sport. He is a coward and a sucker.

SOLDIERS AND CANES.

English Military Men Must Not Go Out Walking Empty Handed.

It is one of the regulations of the British army that every soldier when walking out must carry in his hand a stick in order to preserve a soldierly appearance and prevent anything like slouching in his gait.

This rule applies to all ranks, and should any one seek to evade it he would find his progress barred by the sentry at the barrack gate or entrance to camp.

Privates generally carry light canes or "swagger sticks," noncommissioned officers fairly stout sticks, and officers invariably go in for the more expensive kind. It is a question that has often been asked, Who first suggested the idea? But nobody seems to know.

From the earliest times drill sergeants and drum majors have carried sticks, and the fashion may have come from that fact. Soldiers as a rule buy their own sticks, but in one or two regiments a recruit is presented with one when he gets his uniform. If this gets lost, however, he has to buy the next and subsequent ones.

There is a story told of a soldier one day who couldn't find his cane and, knowing he would be challenged if he didn't have something in his hand, quietly picked up a poker and passed through the gate all right with it in his fist.—Dundee Advertiser.

During one of the revolutions in Haiti a party of Americans made a riding tour of the mountains. One morning a member of the party suddenly drew rein and pointed to a lone ridge where an old tattered stars and stripes fluttered on a bamboo pole.

"We must pay our respects," some one said.

After some search they found a path that zigzagged up to the wild place. They followed it and at last discovered an aged negro sitting before his wretched hut smoking his pipe, while he kept an eye on the flag.

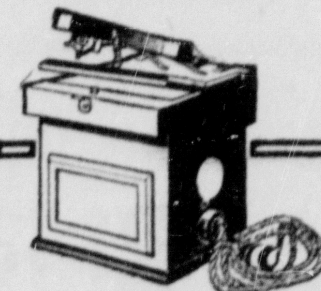

"What's the flag for?" some one asked.

"Perfection," said the old man quietly. "I heah dey done begin another revolution, so I put it up. Yes, sah, I come hear twenty-two years ago, an' has dat flag wid me. I'm George, cook on a steamer outer Savannah."

Antiquity of the Organ.
The organ is the most magnificent and comprehensive of all musical instruments. While the pipes of Pan, aside from that mythical personage, indicate a very ancient use of pipes as a means of producing musical sounds, the "water organ of the ancients" furnishes to the student of organ history the first tangible clew regarding the remote evolution of the instrument. In the second century the magrpha, an organ of ten pipes with a crude keyboard, is said to have existed, but accounts of this instrument are involved in much obscurity. It is averred that an organ, the gift of Constantine, was in the possession of King Pepin of France in 757, but Aldhelm, a monk, makes mention of an organ with "glit pipes" as far back as the year 700.

SERBIA IS NEXT AIM OF KAISER

Tenton Army of 500,000 Assembled Near Border.

ACTIVITY ON EAST FRONT

General Von Hindenburg's Armies Pressing the Russians Hard at Dvinsk and Threatening Minsk. Turks Defeated by the British in Mesopotamia — Date of Bulgaria's Entry Into the War.

London, Sept. 30.—Dispatches from Athens, received here, report that an Austro-German army 500,000 strong is assembling for an offensive against Serbia.

The Germans continue to strike hard at the Russian forces all along their front. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is delivering heavy strokes against Dvinsk while his colleague on his right is pushing forward to the east of Vileika and Molochno in an attempt to turn the Russian position, and has now reached a point to the north of Minsk, which another army is advancing upon from the southwest.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen and Prince Leopold of Bavaria apparently are inactive, owing doubtless to the marshes, which are now impassable, but General Von Linsingen is still pressing hard on the Russians in Volynia.

It is expected that the weather will soon put an end to the operations in the east, as with the continued rains the rivers can not be forded, and the Russians, wherever possible, are getting behind them.

The British have inflicted another serious defeat on the Turks in Mesopotamia. The Tigris army, after suffering heavy losses, is in flight toward Bagdad. Thus, the three armies which the Turks sent to Mesopotamia against the Anglo-Indian invaders have been scattered. In May the Tigris army was driven back from Kurna to north of Amara; the army of Kurna was driven from Ahwaz, and the army of the Euphrates was last heard of as fugitive on the river somewhere north of Nairie.

DESERTED CHILDREN DROWNED

SLEUTHS SEARCHING FOR A BABY FARM

Bodies of Twelve Infants Are Found in River.

New York, Sept. 30.—The finding of the bodies of twelve babies, from a day to a week old, in the East river, on the Williamsburg side, led the police to believe that somewhere in the Williamsburg section there is a baby farm. All the bodies have been found in the last four weeks.

Active search for the place from which the bodies were taken to the river was begun as Joseph Miller, a watchman on the docks, found the bodies of two baby girls not more than a few days old floating in the river. That confirmed Coroner Wagner in his suspicion and he said he was sure that all the bodies came from the same place. There were other things to make a "baby farm" seem the only explanation of the finding of so many bodies in so short a time. They have been of about the same age, been in the water for not more than three or four hours and have been found at about the same time in the evening.

The water front in this section is occupied by factories and men with packages and bundles are constantly passing all during the day. It would be easy for anyone to drop a small bundle off a dock without attracting attention.

The dead are Edward Herring of Haskell, James Watson of Paterson and Fred Williams of Riverdale.

BANKERS OF CHICAGO TO PASS LOAN

New York, Sept. 30.—Financiers here say that New York banks and individuals will take at least 60 per cent of the proposed loan to the allies, or in the neighborhood of $300,000,000, perhaps a little more. More than one-third of this amount, it was said, has already been subscribed for by individual investors of great wealth or much ready money. In this number, it was said, could be counted the heads of the industries now engaged in making munitions of war as well as the possessors of great wealth. John D. Rockefeller, it is rumored, will subscribe for a block of the bonds.

Chicago banks are not expected to form a group. German influences, it is said, are so strong in the banks out there, on the boards and among the depositors, that the banks could not safely appear. Queries have been received from a dozen other cities. To every inquiry, it was said, J. P. Morgan & Co., acting upon the part of organizers, sent a telegraphic invitation for the banks to form a group and come in.

MINERS REFUSE

Athens, O., Sept. 30.—Hocking valley coal miners, in mass meeting here, decided to stand by their contract and to refuse further wage concessions asked by operators of the district. NEW CORN CURE PRINCIPLE

Dr. Hunt's Wonderful Penetration Method. PRICE ONLY 10c.

It remained for Dr. Hunt of Sidney, Ohio, to solve the corn problem. Folks had tried other remedies with only partial success. So, Dr. Hunt got at the root of the matter by getting at the root of the corn with his wonderful penetration method.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Trim plaster size of corn and apply.

An amazing ingredient, discovered by Dr. Hunt, penetrates the corn, eases it immediately, loosens it root and branch so that in two days the corn lifts right out.

No pain, no throbbing toe, no bulky uncomfortable pads to press on the sore spot, no discomfort whatever. Wear your regular shoes. Corn is cured while you walk about. Don't use caustic ingredients that eat off only the top of the corn and stimulate its further growth. Cure your corn the new way, the scientific way by using Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure. Cures by penetration.

Ten cents brings you a box-full. Guaranteed or money back. Sold by all druggists and shoe dealers. Or, send ten cents in stamps to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

The Price of Exchange

There has been quite a good deal of speculation as to just what was meant when the news dispatches told us that the price of foreign exchange was falling.

Most of us could not understand how the English pound sterling could fluctuate in price.

Here is the way the Outlook explains the matter.

Mr. Smith, an American, sells 1000 pounds of sterling worth of cotton to Mr. Brown, an Englishman, in London. The price agreed upon for all such transactions is commonly expressed in English money—pounds, shillings and pence. In ordinary times the financial routine is as follows: Mr. Smith makes a draft on Mr. Brown for 1000 pounds. He could, if he chose, send a messenger over to London and get the 1000 sovereigns, but the expense of such a method of getting his money would be so great as to be prohibitive. Mr. Smith's office is in New York. There is another merchant in New York, Mr. Jones, who owes money in London. He has bought English goods and wants to pay for them. Like Mr. Smith, he does not want to send a messenger to London with his money. He is looking about for some means of paying his bill easily and cheaply. He finds out at a banker's that there is another merchant, Mr. Smith, who has drawn a draft on London for 1000 pounds. He buys it of him through the bank, and mails the draft to London. Mr. Brown, through his English banker, honors the draft. Mr. Jones thus easily pays his debts, and Mr. Smith with equal ease, gets the money for his cotton.

The French and English financiers have been negotiating with our American bankers for the purpose of closing a loan which will prevent the exchange of those nations at a steady figure and put an end to the fluctuations in the price of exchange. The explanation quoted above from the Outlook will enable us to understand the whys and wherefores of a problem which is not familiar, especially in rural districts.

A Western Idea

A western newspaper—one of a great number published in the smaller communities of this country enthusiastically devoted to the service of the particular community its people and its business enterprises—has hit upon quite a novel and effective means of demonstrating to its readers the folly and the injustice of patronizing the big mail order houses and passing by the home business men.

The editor of the paper informs his readers that one of the public roads leading into the town is in a particularly bad condition and that he has sent a letter to each of several of the big mail order houses of the larger cities asking them to make a contribution to be expended in repairs. No doubt, the editor says, the big mail order houses will make haste to comply with the request and forward a substantial sum of money.

The editor, perhaps sarcastically, asserts that certainly, as these big mail order houses pay no taxes in the community and are receiving big sums from the people they will see the justice of the request.

The incident is worthy of consideration by every resident of the rural communities who patronize or even considers seriously of patronizing the out side mail order house.

The plan adopted by the loyal editor of the small western newspaper should be called to the attention of the people all over the nation.

It is an eye opener.

Of course there are a multitude of reasons why the buyer should deal in his home market but this one reason so clearly demonstrated is sufficient to convince anyone possessed of any intention to do right by himself.

Another time wholesome and novel ideas have come out of that great wide awake "west" of ours.

"Going Up."

Prices in the stock markets are still traveling upward, telling a tale of general prosperity in the industrial and commercial activities of the nation.

Not only have the prices of securities reached, as a result of the phenomenal rise of last week, been steadily maintained without any fall of consequence, but in most instances the prices recorded last week have been exceeded in the quotations of the present week.

It is absolutely certain that the advance in price is not due to any stock jobbing manipulations. In the first place the advance is too pronounced and the list of stocks showing an increased price embraces too great a variety of securities. In fact almost every commercial and industrial stock is in on the big boom.

In the second place the advance of last week, remarkably pronounced as it was, could not have been maintained and exceeded by this week's market if there had not been substantial cause existing justifying the increase.

The folks who love to talk hard times have at last been compelled to acknowledge that there is no need for gloom now.

Some few still cling to pessimistic prophecy and are arguing excuses for the revival of business, but they find few sympathizers.

Poetry For Today

WHEN WE GROW OLD.

When we grow old, and when the way
Has wearier grown, maybe,
I wonder will you look that day
As truthfully to me?
When we grow old, sweetheart, and
When
Love's tenderest tales are told,
What new ones shall we whisper
then,
Dear love, when we grow old?

Now Time is young—how light, how
young,
We scarce can hear his feet,
Save that each footfall leaves some
song
To make our dreaming sweet.
But Time steals on, sweetheart, and
when
His steps have heavier grown,
I wonder, shall we hear, then,
The music we have known?

Dear heart, when we grow old, I
ween,
Your hands in mine I'll take,
And all the old, old love has been
We'll tell for new love's sake.
What though each passing year may bring
A halting speech and slow,
As truly as of yore 'twill ring,
"Dear love, I love you so."

Things to Worry About.

A Georgia man has invented a squeakless hammock hook.

Luke McLuke Says

Every now and then you meet a poor boob who really believes that if he wanted to turn himself loose among
the women he could make Don Juan
look like a piker.

You never saw a man holding down
a big executive position who was so proud of his complexion that he let it
keep him awake at night.

If you own a car a pedestrian is an ivory domed, slow footed boob who hasn't sense enough to get out of his own way. But if you are a pedestrian
a car owner is a swelled headed, arrogant idiot who belongs in an insane
asylum.

There are some 100,000 words in the English language. But when a man
stubs his toe or mashes a finger the only word he can think of is one that

He often expresses his willingness to

after she gets him she often wishes he

Some men get a lot of comfort out
of the reflection that there are worse
people in the world than they are.

When a man goes into a kalf to get a beer costing 5 cents he will meet six acquaintances who are drinking fifteen cent drinks. So he has to ask them what they will have. And instead of paying a nickel the man pays $1 for his beer. But the man doesn't mind it so much because he thinks he is a sport. But he isn't a sport. He is a coward and a sucker.

SOLDIERS AND CANES.

English Military Men Must Not Go Out
Walking Empty Handed.

It is one of the regulations of the British army that every soldier when walking out must carry in his hand a stick in order to preserve a soldierly appearance and prevent anything like
slouching in his gait.

This rule applies to all ranks, and should any one seek to evade it he would find his progress barred by the sentry at the barrack gate or entrance
to camp.

Privates generally carry light canes
or "swagger sticks," noncommissioned
officers fairly stout sticks, and officers
invariably go in for the more expensive
kind. It is a question that has often been asked. Who first suggested the idea? But nobody seems to know.

From the earliest times drill sergeants and drum majors have carried sticks, and the fashion may have come from that fact. Soldiers as a rule buy their own sticks, but in one or two regiments a recruit is presented with one when he gets his uniform. If this gets lost, however, he has to buy the next
and subsequent ones.

There is a story told of a soldier one day who couldn't find his cane and,
knowing he would be challenged if he didn't have something in his hand, quietly picked up a poker and passed through the gate all right with it in his fist.—Dundee Advertiser.

During one of the revolutions in Haiti a party of Americans made a riding tour of the mountains. One morning a member of the party suddenly drew rein and pointed to a lone ridge where an old tattered stars and stripes fluttered on a bamboo pole.

"We must pay our respects," some one said.

After some search they found a path that zigzagged up to the wild place.
They followed it and at last discovered an aged negro sitting before his wattle hut smoking his pipe, while he kept an eye on the flag.

"What's the flag for?" some one asked.

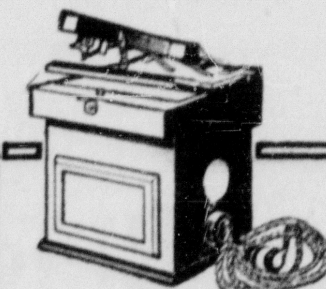

"Perfection," said the old man quietly.
"I heah dey done begin anudder

Antiquity of the Organ.

The organ is the most magnificent and comprehensive of all musical instruments. While the pipes of Pan,
aside from that mythical personage,
indicate a very ancient use of pipes as a means of producing musical sounds,
the "water organ of the ancients" furnishes to the student of organ history
the first tangible clew regarding the remote evolution of the instrument.
In the second century the magripha,
an organ of ten pipes with a crude keyboard, is said to have existed, but accounts of this instrument are involved in much obscurity. It is averred that an organ, the gift of Constantine, was in the possession of King
Pepin of France in 757, but Aldehelm,
a monk, makes mention of an organ with
"gilt pipes" as far back as the year 700.

MAY RESCIND ACTION ON LIGHTING CONTRACT

Former Legislation May Be Annulled By City Council and Call for Bids for New Lights Be Authorized in Order to Eliminate All Question of Validity.

At the next meeting of the city council, it is expected that council will rescind its former action upon the lighting contract with the city and start legislation all over again in order that there cannot be any question as to the legality of the next contract. Whether the new contract will be materially changed or remain as it is, is not known.

The above information comes from an apparently reliable source and if the former action of council is rescinded and the legislation started over again, many weeks must necessarily elapse while the invitation for bids by advertisement, is extended, in order that there may be no question as to the legality of the next contract.

It will be recalled that in a recent suit filed by R. C. Hunt the validity of the contract is attacked upon the grounds that proper invitation for bids was not extended and that the contract was closed up without asking for bids from other lighting concerns, other than upon the first plans contemplated.

When the meeting is held Solicitor Gregg will, in all probability hold that in order to place the contracts for lights upon an absolutely safe basis it will be necessary for council to rescind its former action and start proceedings all over again from the time of calling for bids to confirming the contract with the company submitting the lowest bid.

With the injunction suit on the one side and the matter of re-advertising for bids on the other, Washington may not obtain the first of her new lights before sometime next spring.

INJUNCTION SUIT FILED TO PROTECT NEW PAVING

Attempt to Use Traction Engine in Moving House Over Several Squares of Paved Street Brings Down Prompt Action on Part of City Authorities, Who Obtain Restraining Order.

An injunction suit of deep interest to Washington citizens, particularly those residing on the improved streets, was filed by Solicitor Pope Gregg and Service Director Chas. Gerstner, on behalf of the city, in common pleas court Thursday morning, in which Harvey Culberson is enjoined from removing a house from Sycamore street to the northern part of the city by pulling the structure over North street by the aid of a traction engine.

When the city authorities learned that such a project was under contemplation they immediately launched the suit and Judge Carpenter issued the restraining order.

The plaintiffs' petition alleges that the defendant, engaged in the business of house moving, contemplated the removal of a house from Sycamore street, over North street to a point beyond the B. & O. railroad, and that defendant proposed to use a traction engine with lugs on the rear wheels to pull the building, and that such means of transportation would greatly damage the brick paving, which recently had been laid.

The restraining order was issued and notice immediately served upon the defendant, with the result that the street was saved the ordeal of bearing up the heavy engine.

It is the intention of the city authorities to rigidly enforce all laws protecting the newly paved streets, and the passage of a traction engine may be regarded as sufficient grounds for damage suit or restraining order.

In a supplementary petition filed by Solicitor Gregg, Thursday afternoon, O. Robinett was made a defendant in the action, the first named defendant declaring that Robinett was in charge of moving the house in question.

LIFETIME RESIDENT CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. Margaret E. Rockwell, widow of the late Milo Rockwell, and one of the older residents of this city held in high esteem throughout the community, died Thursday morning at her residence on Washington avenue.

Mrs. Rockwell was in her eighty-third year and had lived out the greater part of her days in the home where she peacefully answered the eternal summons.

A gentle, lovely woman, the friends who sympathize with her two children, Miss Abbie and Mr. Warren, both entirely devoted to their mother, are many.

Mrs. Rockwell is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Mary Marcy of Columbus, who was with her during her last illness. The late Major James F. Cook was a brother.

Although always frail Mrs. Rockwell had been in her usual health until she suffered a slight stroke of paralysis several weeks ago.

The funeral services will be held at the residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Washington cemetery.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

STINSON—Mrs. Ann Stinson, mother of W. L. Stinson, well known cattle shipper, died Wednesday at her home in Greenfield. The funeral will be held Saturday at the residence.

SPANGLER WILL LEAVE THE B. & O.

With the resignation of N. G. Spangler as division freight agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Chillicothe, on October 1, following his election as First Vice-President and special representative of the Columbus Mutual Life Insurance Company, important changes in the traffic department will take place according to an announcement made at the headquarters of the railroad. The resignation of Mr. Spangler was received with reluctance by the Baltimore & Ohio with which Mr. Spangler severs business relations after 25 years in the service of the company.

MONSTER CIRCUS PASSES THROUGH

Between midnight and four o'clock Thursday morning Barnum and Bailey's big circus passed through this city over the C. H. & D. railroad, bound for Xenia, where stop was made for the day.

The big circus was loaded on four long trains, the four sections containing a total of eighty cars.

Very few Washington citizens saw the famous show in its nocturnal journey.

A telephone message received by Mrs. Will Sprenger at noon Thursday said that Hon. and Mrs. H. L. Hadley, accompanied by Mr. Sprenger from Boston, Mass., had reached Columbus and would continue the trip to their home in this city by automobile, arriving some time this afternoon.

In Social Circles

Mrs. C. A. Reid extended the hospitality of her spacious home to a large number of women at the Kensington given by the entertainment committee of the Presbyterian Ladies' Missionary society, Wednesday afternoon. Entertaining with Mrs. Reid were Mesdames James Crawford, Calvin Holmes and Miss Rose McLean.

The affair was made delightful in every way. A profusion of gorgeous fall flowers, brilliant scarlet dahlias, asters and cosmos, gracefully arranged in brass, silver and cut glass vases, filled the rooms and the spirit of sociability was paramount.

A beautiful program of music enhanced the attractions of the gathering.

Mrs. Walter Meek of Denver, Col., who is the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. R. S. Quinn, graciously responded to urgent requests with a group of lovely songs, "I Hear You Calling Me,"—Harold Harford; "Little Gray Home in the West," and "Perfect Peace."

Miss Meek not only possesses a beautiful resonant soprano, but sings with such exquisite sympathy and musical feeling that she charms her listeners doubly.

Miss Ruth Reid gave an artistic piano interpretation of Grottechalk's "Last Hope," and a number of superb Victrola numbers rounded out the program.

The hostess served an appetizing collation. The unusually large silver offering was gratifying to the society.

Among the guests were Mrs. Walter Meek and little daughter Eleanore, of Denver, Colo., Mrs. Robert Schenck of Dayton, and Miss Anna Louise Ustick of Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Deheart pleasantly entertained two tables of Finch Wednesday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barney.

Miss Marie Cook enjoyably entertained ten boys of her Sunday school class of the Church of Christ, at her home, Wednesday evening.

Music and games furnished a jolly evening and the hostess served tempting refreshments.

Mrs. Rush Hays and Miss Lola Ream assisted in the hospitalities.

Paris, Sept. 30.—German casualties in killed, wounded and prisoners as a result of the allies' five-day offensive are, according to the French war office, in excess of 120,000.

The amount of booty is enormous. Already seventy-nine cannon have been dragged to the rear of the French lines, with a quantity of uncounted material, including rifles, machine guns, ammunition and supplies. The battle continues without respite. In Artois the French troops pressed forward step by step until they had reached the dominating height known as Hill 140, and the extensive orchards to the south. The hill commands a great expanse of country to the north, and once the French guns are placed on its summit the German communications for miles around will be imperiled.

In Champagne the struggle continues no less furiously. French troops are gradually making their way up the Ture heights and are closing in along the approaches to the village itself. These heights, like the crest of Hill 140 in Artois, will afford the French guns a clear sweep towards the German communications at the rear and will make it possible to so embarrass the German operations that a continued defense of that region will be very uphill work.

East of Ture and north of Massiges the French made fresh gains, in spite of the furious resistance being offered by the Germans. There is no doubt about the character of this resistance. The Germans are doing the stiffest fighting yet displayed by them in the west.

There is a strong likelihood that some new operation of great importance is about to be launched. Such at least would seem to be the case from the fact that the military authorities have ordered the Swiss frontier closed to all traffic. In addition, telegrams to certain foreign countries can be filed only subject to a delay of forty-eight hours.

It is impossible to form any adequate idea of the casualties on the French side, as the war office is continuing its previous practice of retaining strictly silent on this subject. It is reported, however, that trains loaded with wounded soldiers have arrived in Paris.

FUNSTON RELIEVES RANGERS OF BORDER PATROL

Types of Texas rangers, the state patrol whose place on the border has been taken by soldiers, General Funston complaining that the rangers sometimes instigated the firing across the Mexican border.

CUBANS DEAD SET AGAINST LIFE TENURE

Havana, Sept. 30.—Ex-President Gomez, who brought about the revolution of 1906 to prevent the re-election of Tomas Estrada Palma, says that he believes the re-election of President Menocal will result in another revolution or at least in great political disquiet. "I do not believe that President Menocal will seek re-election," he said, "because he is a patriot. A re-election at such a time, when the country is still in a formative stage, would mean revolution. It was for this reason that I relinquished the opportunity for another term as president. It would be the gravest error for any man to attempt to place himself at the head of the government for a second time."

PRETTY SOFT FOR FAVORED NINETY-NINE

New York, Sept. 30.—One seventh of all the land in New York city is owned by ninety-nine families, according to a statement issued by Frederick C. Leubuscher, president of the Society of Lower Rents. The assessed value of the land holdings of these ninety-nine families in Manhattan alone is $444,559,212, about one-third of the value of the borough. The families with the most notable holdings are the Astors, Goetzes, Vanderbilts, Rhinelanders, McAlpins, Baudouines, Gerrys, Ehrets, Wendels, Hoffmans, Sterns, Morgans and Heards.

DEMAND 8-HOUR DAY

Cincinnati, Sept. 30.—More than 200 machinists in two shops here went on strike when their employers refused to grant an eight-hour day and a forty-eight hour week working agreement. A number of other machine companies have been served with the demands and union leaders here claim that at least 1,000 machinists will be on strike by Saturday unless their demands are met.

ORKNEY ISLANDERS.

Proud of Their Norse Descent and Prefer Scenery to Trees.

Miss Elinor Root, who has been visiting in the little known Orkney Islands, tells us that the natives are very proud of their Norse origin, indignantly repudiating the idea that their forbears were Scottish.

"People do not speak here with nearly so broad an accent as the people in Scotland," Miss Root remarked to her hostess, "and I notice the names do not sound Scotch—Cutt, Twatt, Flett, Curstior, and so on. How is that?"

My hostess stiffened visibly. "They are not Scotch. We are not Scotch. We did not come from Scotland. Have ye never heard of the Norsemen from beyond the seas? We are the descendants of them. We are not of Scotch blood. Ye do not call the Irish English; ye're not to call us Scotch."

"I beg your pardon," I returned humbly, and to change the subject plunged into the theme of afforestation. The venture was an unfortunate one, as trees refuse to grow in the islands.

"Trees spoil the scenery," declared my hostess. "We would not have them if we could. If ye go to the southland ye cannot see anything of the scenery for the trees. We like to see scenery."—Lippincott's Magazine.

OHIO NEWSLETS

Injured in a Runaway.
Marion, O., Sept. 30.—His jaw dislocated, four ribs broken and suffering internal injuries as a result of his horse running away, Robert Ettinger of Marion is in a dying condition at Martel, east of here.

Postoffice Robbed.

Athens, O., Sept. 30.—Yeggmen made a good haul when they blew the safe of the postoffice at Guyville, ten miles east of here. The safe was wrecked and about $100 in cash and about $250 worth of stamps were taken.

Fall From Strawstack.

Kent, O., Sept. 30.—As they finished threshing in Streetsboro township, Harry Burroughs, fifty, and Charles Wise, thirty-eight, fell thirty feet when the top of the strawstack toppled over. Both were badly injured, Burroughs seriously.

Doings of Presbyterian Synod.

Mansfield, O., Sept. 30.—The United Presbyterian Synod of Ohio closed its annual meeting here with a temperance rally. Rev. W. S. Rutledge of Cleveland gave the principal address. Wheeling, W. Va., was selected as the place of holding the 1916 meeting.

Girl Dead on Highway.

Cleveland, Sept. 30.—The body of a woman, young and well dressed, was found in a deserted part of Bowers' woods along the Bendford road, near Garfield Park. An examination of the body failed to disclose whether she had ended her own life or had been the victim of an assassin.

RECEIVER SUES FOR $7,000,000

New York, Sept. 30.—Jacob M. Dickinson, who was appointed receiver for the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway company in an equity suit brought by a creditor in Chicago, filed suit here to recover $7,500,000 from members of the Reid-Moore directorate, who are alleged to have caused the Rock Island to lose that amount through acting in their own interests and in violation of their duties toward the road and its creditors.

SAY MONFORT HAS THE LEAD

Washington, Sept. 30.—It is generally conceded that the next annual encampment of the G. A. R. will be held in Atlantic City. The delegates from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, with strong support from the middle west, have practically edged every other city aspiring for the privilege of entertaining the vets next year off the track. The race for commander in chief of the organization seems to lie between Frank O. Cole of Jersey City and Elias Monfort of Cincinnati, with the latter in the lead. Cincinnati will not only furnish the commander in chief of the G. A. R., but the commander in chief of the Sons of Veterans in the person of A. E. H. Stephens.

LUCK.

Luck is the main difference between failure and success. It rises like some mysterious fairy from the chaos of events and crowns its victors with an apparently hopeless ignorance of justice.

Luck must be a woman; no man could be so fickle, so fantastic in a choice of favorites.

Luck, however, has one great virtue. Although she will desert the gambler as suddenly as she came to him, she is likely to be faithful to those of her proteges who are the steadiest workers. She appears to be on the side of the biggest battalions.—Life.

Voice Transmitted Across the American Continent.

Washington, Sept. 30.—The world's record for wireless telephony was established here. Speech was successfully transmitted from the giant navy wireless station at Arlington to the Mare Island navy yard, near San Francisco, a distance of approximately 2,200 miles. This is the first time that such a great distance has been bridged by wireless telephony.

Announcement of this great feat was made here by Secretary of the Navy Daniels. A report to the secretary by Captain W. H. G. Ballard, superintendent of the naval radio service, was the basis of Mr. Daniels' announcement.

The successful transmission of the human voice to the Mare Island station was the culmination of several months of experiment on the part of the naval experts engaged in the development of radio telegraphy. These experiments have been conducted in co-operation with the American Telephone and Telegraph company and with the Western Electric company. Officials of both concerns were present at the successful transmission and took part in the conversations with San Francisco.

While naval officers are most reserved in making any estimates of the military value of the new achievement, they hold out that a person inland may converse with another person hundreds of miles out at sea, as a possibility of the near future.

INCENDIARY BOMBS.

Terrific Heat of Thermite, the Stuff With Which They Are Filled.

Incendiary bombs are one of the most fearful engines of modern warfare. The reason they throw out such a terrific heat is because they are filled with thermite.

Thermite is so hot when it is fired that it will melt iron and steel with the greatest ease and even burn its way through granite.

This marvelous substance was discovered in 1902. It is really a mixture of coarsely powdered aluminum and oxide of iron. It can't be fired by itself, but has to be started by another mixture consisting of finely powdered aluminum and barium peroxide.

The wonderful heating power of this terrible substance has been made use of all over the world in iron and steel welding. Steel joints are welded solidly together in a few moments by placing a little thermite round the joint and firing it.

The thermite mixture is as safe to handle or store as sawdust—safer, in fact. Only the special mixture or a very high temperature indeed will set it on fire. If necessary the two substances from which thermite is made can be taken separately and mixed when required, and there is no danger whatever in aluminum powder or oxide of iron, which is, practically speaking, iron rust, yet the mixture makes up one of the hottest substances known.—Pearson's Weekly.

BURTON SPEAKS

Cleveland, Sept. 30.—Former United States Senator Theodore E. Burton in an address before the Cleveland Advertising club advocated compulsory military training for the United States to place the country in a state of "preparedness." Mr. Burton declared he did not believe in training as enforced in conscription countries, but does believe that some military training should be made compulsory.

DREADNOUGHT CALIFORNIA WILL HAVE "CLIPPER" BOW.

New Battleship by Her Graceful Stem Will Bring Drastic Changes.

The new battleship California, the keel of which will soon be laid, will be the world's first electric Dreadnought and from point of size will be greater than any foreign battleship built or building. The California and her two sister ships, the Mississippi and the Idaho, already authorized, will each displace 32,000 tons, almost 1,000 tons more than the new Dreadnought Pennsylvania, now on the way to completion.

The California will be a ship of innovations. She will cost $7,800,000 without her armor or armament, which is expected to cost as much more. She will have a speed of twenty-one knots an hour, will be 624 feet long, ninety-seven feet across her beam and will draw thirty feet of water. She will carry twelve fourteen-inch guns, mounted three abreast in a turret, and twenty-two five-inch rapid fire guns and will have four submerged torpedo tubes.

The principal feature of the new Dreadnought, however, is the machinery for propelling her by electricity. She will be driven by motors which will deliver electricity made by steam. The navy experts believe the electric installation is cheaper than steam propulsion and reduces the weight of machinery. The collier Jupiter has been so successful with electric machinery that the navy feels justified in adapting it to a Dreadnought.

Outwardly the California will bring a drastic change of line and appearance to the battle fleet. Instead of the blunt gray nose of the present day big fighter her bows will be tapered into a graceful, yachtlike stem much like those of the famous clipper sailing ships that carried the American flag at the head of the world's swiftest craft in the forties and fifties.

STORM SWEEP COAST

New Orleans In the Path of the Hurricane.

HEAVY DAMAGE RECORDED

Loss of Life and Property in Southern Louisiana and Mississippi Believed Considerable — Levee Gives Way South of New Orleans—All Communications With Outside World Cut Off For Hours.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 30.—The city of New Orleans and the Louisiana and Mississippi gulf coast were swept by a hurricane that paralyzed communication and caused loss of life and property.

The river levees below New Orleans have broken, houses have been washed away and several lives have been lost in that section, according to a wireless message received here.

The business section of Biloxi, Miss., is under six feet of water, and train service has been abandoned because of washouts throughout a large section about Bay St. Louis.

Last reports coming from New Orleans before all means of communication were lost said winds drove the water in Lake Pontchartrain above the sea wall and Milneburg and other New Orleans suburbs along the lake were partially under water.

The wind reached a velocity of thirty miles an hour at New Orleans and Bay St. Louis, according to reports reaching here. Wire communication was possible only as far as Bay St. Louis, and fragmentary reports from there told of extensive damage to property, but no loss of life. A long trestle of the Louisville and Nashville railroad at The Rigollets, between Bay St. Louis and New Orleans, was reported to have been swept away.

Mobile escaped the worst of the storm, but the wind here was sufficient to drive the water over the wharves at the river front and unroof several houses. There was no serious damage.

The coast guard cutter Tallapoosa, anchored here, made repeated unsuccessful efforts to reach by wireless the Southern Pacific liner Proteus, believed to be in the center of the storm off New Orleans bar.

Telegraphic and train connection between central Mississippi and south Mississippi points and New Orleans have been cut off by the storm.

A wireless received later from New Orleans reported five lives lost and the property damage estimated there now at more than a million. It reported the storm passing west of New Orleans toward Oklahoma.

WOMAN SUES REV. DR. HILL FOR $100,000

New York, Sept. 30.—Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill, pastor of the Metropolitan temple, noted public speaker and writer, was named as defendant in a suit for $100,000, alleging breach of promise of marriage, brought against him by Lucille Covington. At Dr. Hill's office it was said that the clergyman started on a lecture trip which would take him to Michigan. He is expected to return within a week. Nothing was known by his associates of any lawsuit.

Miss Covington is a lecturer upon economics and other topics. Dr. Hill was chaplain of the Republican national conventions in Chicago in 1908 and 1912.

Dr. Hill, who is married, employed Miss Covington for about six months in 1910 as manager of his lecture bureau. Before leaving for the west he declared that she had no valid claim against him.

Burns as a Tax Collector.

In the olden days candles were taxed articles, and it was the duty of Robert Burns as an excise officer to see that the tax was not evaded. He generally looked the other way, however, as when passing through the kitchen one night at William Lorimer's of Kennishall, where the goddess was busy making candles, he merely remarked, "Faith, madam, ye're thrang the night," and passed into the parlor.—St. James' Gazette.

No Cause For Him to Complain.

"See here!" remarked the guest to the new waiter. "There doesn't seem to be any soup on this menu card."

"Oh, no, sir!" replied the waiter nervously. "I didn't spill it at this table. It was the one on the other side of the room."

Whoever is inclined to "view with alarm" now has plenty of material to work from.

PHILLIES TAKE THE PENNANT

Boston, Sept. 30.—The Phillies made sure of the National league pennant by shutting out the Braves, 5 to 0. It was a great day for Manager Moran and Alexander the Great, who showed the assembled thousands how to pitch championship ball. Three thousand of Moran's fellow townsmen came down from Fitchburg to do him honor and to present him with a mammoth floral horseshoe.

MAN IS BADLY GORED BY INFURIATED STEER

Animal, Suffering From Gash in Shoulder, Runs Amuck East of This City and Wild Excitement Ensues—Still at Large When Last Heard Of—Said to Have Come From This City.

A black steer, said to have escaped from a herd in this city, ran amuck east of this city on the Circleville pike, Thursday forenoon and as a result Jesse Johnson, of New Holland, was very badly injured and nearly met death when the animal flung itself upon him and attempted to gore him after Mr. Johnson had prevented the animal from attacking a woman and child in a buggy.

The animal was first noticed near the residence of Harry Taylor, and when near the Porter residence, immediately west of the Bogus road crossing on the Circleville pike, attacked Mr. Johnson and Mr. G. W. Thompson, of the Bogus road succeeded in driving the animal away after it had torn nearly all of Johnson's clothing off and inflicted some ugly cuts and bruises about the face and body.

Continuing onward the animal attacked nearly everything in sight, and D. E. Mershon, substitute carrier on Route No. 6 was held up for more than one hour, as well as a number of other persons.

Mr. Steer took complete possession of the road, and everyone was warned to be on the lookout. The animal finally made his way down toward Johnson's Crossing, turned north on the Hess road and was last seen standing along the roadside near the John Lininger farm.

The vicious attacks of the brute created great excitement, and the neighborhood was so aroused that calls were made to the police and to the sheriff, who, after learning that the animal was probably infuriated by a wound in its shoulder and not suffering from hydrophobia turned the matter over to the township trustees of Marlon township.

After Mr. Johnson was injured he was taken to the home of Harry Taylor, on the Circleville pike, and a physician was called from this city. The wounds were dressed and Mr. Johnson later returned to New Holland.

Later—it has been learned that the animal is one of three which escaped from the C. H. & D. stock pens in this city, Wednesday night, when two car loads of the animals were unloaded for feed and water. The other two have been recaptured and placed in the pens, while the remainder which did not break loose, were reloaded and shipped onward.

ed the noonday luncheon of the club Thursday, several new members being present.

Following the luncheon Mr. Ed Pfeiffer, one of the new members, made a splendid talk, discussing the new Union Station project and urging that the new connecting link to the uptown district be extended across the bottoms west of Water street.

Some 35 monthly meal tickets were disposed of at the session.

HISTORIC PARK IS DAMAGED BY SHOW

"Never Again!" says Chillicothe. The Barnum and Bailey circus didn't do a thing to Yoctangee park in that city—that is it didn't do a thing but leave the pretty park much resembling a Flanders battlefield.

POLICE ON TRAIL OF BICYCLE THIEF

Chief Moore is on the track of the thief who stole a bicycle from Elmer Black, of Jackson, Saturday night.

The wheel was stolen from the alley near Dale's store, and the man's corn knife, clothing and other articles were carried on the wheel.

Chief Moore has succeeded in obtaining the corn knife and part of the clothing and hopes to have the thief within a short time.

Carranza probably nurses the belief that eventually some one must be recognized, and if he is the man he wants to name his own vice president and cabinet.

It is difficult to understand why war should be regarded as inevitable when nobody on earth can be found who will admit that he or she actually desires it.

Barrister's Fees.

The barrister's fees are irrecoverable in law, but he can pick and choose his customers and can also insist on cash in advance. Until recently every barrister had on his table a gentle reminder in the way of a fee bowl. In earlier times the client used to drop surreptitiously the money in a little bag at the back of counsel's gown. A trace of this receptacle still figures in legal costume.—London Chronicle.

*My friends often ask
"Where do you get
such stunning
Outfits?"*

THEY seem to think when they see me in my new PRINTZESS suit that I have found some genius of a tailor who is particularly apt in conceiving designs that are just right for my requirements and who is so artistic that he can select the proper materials, colors and trimmings to make my suit stand out from the crowd. As a matter of fact I despaired long ago of finding any tailor in town who could give me the kind of suit I was dreaming about, but I did find a designer elsewhere who is paid thousands of dollars every year for designing garments such as the one I am wearing, and so it's no wonder that my outfits are stunning, is it? Especially when you consider that this designer has associated with him workmen who are masters in the tailoring craft, who put in every garment the perfection of material and lining, who are so sure of their product that they are willing to guarantee it to give you perfect satisfaction. We have one that you will think was made just for you, and we want you to see it. Come into our garment department and ask one of our garment saleswomen about it.
